Rockwood DIGEST

Who Me? The camera delights young Amy Knegt, a nearly two-year-old, attending the Rockwood Presbyterian Church Pancake breakfast Good Friday. A large turnout followed the good smells into the church hall to enjoy a well cooked breakfast.

Report from the Annual meeting of the Rock-wood Women's Institute was received. Forty-eight members and friends attended the Ice Capades in Kitchener on April 3. The institute will sell raffle tickets for their quilt at Pioneer Day on June 14.

Spring Achievement day for 4 H'ers was set for April 21 and will take place at 7:30 p.m. at the University of Guelph Arboretum Centre.

The Institute District Annual (South Wellington) meeting has been planned for May 21 at Duff's Church, Morriston.

New officers were elected and will stand as follows for the 1980-1981 season.

President Mrs. Ken Spence; First vice president, Mrs. George Mitchell; second vice president, Mrs. B. Leroy; secretary, Mrs. John Ramsey; District Director, Mrs. Helen Bayne; Alternate District Director, Mrs. Cecil Nellis; Pianist, Mrs. W. Black; Directors, Mrs. B. Leroy, Mrs. J. Benham, Mrs. M. Nelson; Flower Committee, Mrs. A.M. Duffe; Auditors, Mrs. Lloyd Dyer, Mrs. H. Bayne; Courtesy, Mrs. J. Glendinning.

Rockwood Cubs and Scouts are having a bottle and tape drive Saturday April 12 in the morning throughout Rockwood, Eden Mills and Everton. They'll be collecting returnable bottles and any Dominion and Zehrs grocery cash tapes.

Proceeds will go to sponsor May weekend cub and scout camps. Out-of-towners may drop their offerings at Gowen Street near Saunders Bakery that morning.

Ron Corbett, Area One Superintendent of Schools for Wellington County, explains programs available for special students at the Rockwood and Eramosa Home and School Association Meeting held at Centennial School recently.

How about that for an Easter weekend. Did you ever see such day or Sunday before? Rockwood was alive with residents raking lawns, washing, cars, cleaning out eavestroughs and moving earth. Don't stop now. You can't sit down till next winter.

Easter services at all Rockwood churches were well-attended with the sun shining on Easter bunnets.

Lionettes' president Judy Dunn admires a Boston Fern at the Lionettes' tea and plant sale at Rockwood Community Centre last week. A capacity crowd attended to hear Keith Wylie of Wylie Green Plants talk to the group about plant care. A plant sale followed.

Limehouse

Pot luck lunch ends W.I.

by Mrs. A.W. Benton
Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Stanley McEnery (nee Page) who were married in Churchill Community Church April 5.

It is pleasant to hear the birds singing each morning. The Beaver mothers have recently completed a quilt and are selling tickets to raffle it. Mr. and Mrs. R.D.B. Shepard are enjoying their family with them over Easter. Suzanne is home from Switzerland and John and Robert from Toronto.

The Limehouse Women's Institute ended the year 1979-80 with a tasty pot luck luncheon on April 3 when 14 arrived by noon. President Mrs. T.N. Anderson chaired the meeting later opening with a spring verse.

District Director Mrs. Booth and secretary Mrs. Kirkwood had a report of the spring meeting. The District Annual will be held in Hillcrest Church May 15, where the theme will be: "The World is my Home."

Churchill

Easter breakfast success

by J. Turner
The Congregation of Churchill Community Church gathered early Easter Sunday morning for a sunrise breakfast. Breakfast was prepared and served by Rev. Jenkins, George Perkins, Terry Soutere, Bill Thompson and Wally Ella and other able stalwarts of the church.

The pews were filled for the Easter service at 11 a.m. The church orchestra, Keith Barber, John Duenk, and Archie Kerr, assisted organist, Marie Anderson. The choir sang two Easter anthems. Rev. Jenkins' sermon pointed out the transformation that can take place in our lives when we accept the reality of the risen Christ.

Churchill C.C.W. are holding their April meeting at the new home of Mrs. Linda Bauman, West Montrose. Save your newspapers for the Churchill C.C.W. paper drive May 5, 6, and 7.

Churchill Community Church was the scene last Saturday of a pretty spring wedding. Julie Page, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Page became the bride of Stanley McEnery, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McEnery. The bride was lovely in a traditional white gown with train, attended by sisters Cheryl, Lou and Wendy (Mrs. Wayne Medland) with friend Debbie (Medland) Dempsey matron-of-honour.

Eden Mills Seniors obtain slides screen

by Mrs. W. MacDougall
In last week's column, the name of Mrs. Peter Wylie, a sister of Mrs. W. Gilbertson, was left off the list of those who poured tea at Open House.

Mrs. Anna Wilson, president of the Friendly Seniors presided over the meeting last Wednesday afternoon with 18 members present. The group has saved enough Zehrs' tapes to purchase a screen for slides. Thanks to everyone who helped towards this achievement. A bus trip is one of the future projects. A surprise birthday cake for Mrs. W. Gilbertson who is 90; Mrs. J. Gilbertson, 88, and Mrs. Wilk Wilson, 86 was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Manse Lowrie spent the weekend in Toronto for two birthdays for sisters Bea Birch and Harriet Douglas.

Organizers Jean Turowski and Beryl Blaakman report the Flea Market and Garage sale was a tremendous success.

Those who attended the dinner and fashion show held by the Rundle Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star at the Italian Canadian Club, Guelph, were Aggie Link; Barb Bolea; Dorothy and Linda Blacklock; Lois McLean; Jean Rinehart and Audrey Blacklock, Burlington.
