Bantam selects in tourney

A select Bantam team topped off the 1979-80 Acton Legion Minor Hockey season with a victory and two losses in a West Hill Hockey Association tournament, in Pickering's Art Thompson arena Easter weekend.
Acton competed in three games in the Scarborough tournament, losing the first to Thornhill 6-2 on Friday, April 4, winning the second over Wexford 3-2 in sudden death overtime Sunday April 6, and falling to the Agincourt Canadiens 8-1 in the semi-final Saturday.

The Acton Selects didn't have as good a game against a stronger Agincourt team. Still the game was fast and highly-competitive despite the score.
Agincourt had the advantage of playing together as a team for four years, while the Acton squad has only four practices and two exhibition games before the tournament under their belts.
