Catholic Women's League

Celebrate CWL week

by Ruth McMahon
The declaration of April 20-27 as Catholic Women's League Week has inspired St. Joseph's CWL to attempt to make it a special week in their Parish. An evening of Reflection was held on April 22 for all of the ladies in the Parish. Saturday April 26 marks the Feast of Our Lady of Good Counsel and the league members will attend mass in a body to recognize and celebrate the Feast of their Patron Saint.

At the meeting which was held last Tuesday a new slate of officers was elected. They are as follows: President—Mrs. Bill (Pat) Jackson; first vice-president—Mrs. Mike (Ruth) McMahon; second vice-president—Mrs. Ray (Rena) Arbie; Secretary—Mrs. Tom (Mary Margaret) Dickinson; Treasurer—Mrs. Clarence (Ann) Donstan. There will be a special mass on May 13 for the installation of the new officers.
A group of ladies has started working on a quilt in a maple leaf design to be the main prize for the annual draw at the Christmas Bazaar. The legion has been booked for November 22 for the fiscal year donations were made to Acton Community Services—$100, Halton Pro-Life—$100, Guatemalan Missions—$200.
A spring rummage sale will be held in the parish hall on April 25 and 26. Plans are being made for several members to attend the Hamilton Diocesan Convention being held in Hamilton on May 30, 31 and June 1. The theme for this year's convention will be "Faith and the Family."
A "design a badge" contest was recently held for members of the parish and school—the badge to signify St. Joseph's Acton in some way. The winner of this contest was Dennis Blake, a student at Sir Wilfrid Laurier University. He received a Bible as his prize. Honourable mention went to Elizabeth Meynen, in grade six at St. Joseph's School, for her entry which came second. The badge will be worn by representatives attending the Diocesan Convention where there will also be an inter-parish contest.

Pat Jones of Acton is giving the "thump" of life during a heart-saving program of cardio-pulmonary resuscitation. The course, instructed by Chuck Southwell of the provincial facility of Emergency Cardiac Care, was at the YMCA Saturday.

The April evening meeting of Acton Golden Age Club last Wednesday was well attended and was opened by the singing of O Canada and the Theme Song with the president presiding.
Anne Berry reported on the sale of tickets on the afghan which had been donated by Annie Lambert. These are going very well and the draw will take place at our bake sale on Friday, May 2 at Dawe Real Estate.
Two new members were welcomed to the club.

The president announced that the past president, John Watkins, was now in the Hyde Nursing Home, Guelph, and would be pleased to see any friends.
Harvey Young had the only April birthday. Anne and Joe Berry and Harry and Edna Besley were celebrating anniversaries.
The club always looks forward to meetings when the Ballinafad Men's Choir with Eileen McEnery at the piano, entertains us. They are a treat to listen to and were assisted by two of their wives in duets. Two young ladies, Sherri McLean and Christine Kerr, sang several numbers and they will be a valuable asset to the choir for many years. Alma Sinclair delighted everyone with readings and Lillie Given sang a few solos.
A social theme concluded a very pleasant evening.

Police talks held in limbo

Negotiations between the Halton Police Commission and its 263-man force are "on hold" until an arbitrator is appointed.
Halton Police Association President Bill Gail said Monday: "It's still in limbo".
Constable Gail said the association is waiting for its copy of the conciliator's report.
Then the association will apply for an arbitrator to settle the contract dispute which has left the uniformed police, plus 84 civilians, working without a contract since year's end.
