

More AMHA awards... Midget Tim Baker takes the Lady Byng trophy home. Harold Townsley gives him a hand.

Frank Allsup, master of ceremonies for the awards night, got into the act himself when he presented Troy McNaught with the MIP trophy in the minor bantams division.

Don Lindsay presented Dell Mohammed with the MIP trophy in the midget category.

The Lady Byng trophy for the major bantams went to Mike Yalowica. Richard Kilpatrick presented him with the hardware.

Pepper competes

Jennifer Pepper of the Halton Hill Jills, who was a second alternate for the Central Region Junior B gymnastic team, got to compete Saturday, because of injury to team members.

Herb Dodds awarded Bruce Canary of the major bantams the Harold Townsley trophy for Most Improved Player.

Jennifer didn't place but her all round score of 30.70 helped the team to a third place finish in the Ontario Provincial finals at Burlington.

Also on Saturday, 14 pre-competitive Jills competed in the Orangeville Lions Pre-competitive Invitational Meet. In group A Jennifer Arnold placed second on beam, third on bars, fourth on vault and floor and third all round.

Group B, Jennifer Melville, first on beam, sixth on floor, Lisa Greenly, third on beam.
