

LIE BACK AND ENJOY THE BEST OF THE WEST

ley, or Big Muddy Badlands. Leave Regina on The Canadian and enjoy a leisurely trip back.

VIA SE-21 $485. from Toronto.
$500. from Montreal.
Lower prices off-season.

WESTERN CANADA DISCOVERER

This fifteen-day vacation shows you two views of the Golden West. One travelling out; the other coming back through the Yellowhead, Rogers and Kicking Horse passes. Having seen Northern Ontario's lakes and craggy forests; the inland port of Thunder Bay; the Lake-of-the-Woods resort area; and the Prairies. With Edmonton your first stop. A sightseeing tour will show you the best of this booming capital city. Then you are free to shop before climbing back on board the Super Continental for the overnight trip to the West Coast.

Through the Fraser Canyon and Valley. Then Vancouver for three nights. Stanley Park, Gastown, the Bloedel Conservatory, Capilano Canyon and the British Properties. Bus and ferry take you to Victoria for a night with a tour of the Butchart Gardens. Leave Vancouver for Calgary, via the breathtaking Rockies, Kicking Horse Pass and spiral tunnels. Calgary is a two-night stop with a visit to Heritage Park. Back home through the Prairies and Northern Ontario again.

VIA SE-22 $610. from Toronto.
$625. from Montreal.
Lower prices off-season.

CANADIAN ROCKIES DISCOVERER

This is a memorable tour across Canada with the incomparable Rockies as its focal point. You wind through Northern Ontario; around Lake Superior; past the inland port of Thunder Bay; the Lake-of-the-Woods; into the wheatfields of the Prairies; to the foothills of the Rockies; and the awe-inspiring peaks surrounding Banff. There you'll stay for three nights. And some scenic sightseeing of the stunning area of lakes, hot springs, and crystal-clear air. Total relaxation. Then The Canadian to the Pacific Coast. Through the Fraser Canyon; the lush Fraser Valley to Vancouver. Sightsee Stanley Park. Then a bus and ferry to Victoria for a night. A visit to spectacular Butchart Gardens. Back in Vancouver, board the Super Continental for an overnight trip to Jasper. A sightseeing tour shows you this fantastic area. This is a three-night stopover. Return home on the Super Continental through the awesome Western scenery.

VIA SE-23 $635. from Toronto.
$650. from Montreal.
Lower prices off-season.

TRANSCONTINENTAL DISCOVERER WEST

A unique one-way tour across Canada.

Going home whatever way you fancy. Giving you lots of freedom. Start with two days in cosmopolitan Montreal. Visit the spectacular International Flower Show (Les Florales) held for the first time ever in Canada. Enjoy some of the finest food and wines anywhere outside of France. A fast VIA train takes you to Kingston, where you can visit Sir John A. Macdonald's home and take a cruise to the Thousand Islands. Then Toronto for three nights, including a full day's visit to Niagara Falls. On to the rugged scenery of Northern Ontario and Thunder Bay. Followed by Lake-of-the-Woods; the Prairies and the foothills of the Rockies. That takes in two days. Now at Banff, where you have three nights and days to sightsee; swim in hot springs; ride a cable car; climb a mountain; and just relax and drink in the crystal-clear air. A bus ride to Jasper takes in the amazing Columbia Icefields and gives you a chance to ride a snowmobile. Still at Jasper (it's a three-night stay) you can

Fraser Valley, B.C.

Butchart Gardens, Victoria, B.C.

Jasper National Park, Alta.

