

SCALE THE HEIGHTS AND LEARN THE LORE

Heritage Park. North to bustling Edmonton for two nights. And lots of shopping along Jasper Avenue. Or a smooth ride on Canada's newest light-rail transit system. In the afternoon it's all-aboard the Super Continental for home. Lying back in the glass dome and soaking up the super scenery. Even the Fraser Valley looks different on the westbound trip back!
VIA SE-27 $250. from Vancouver. Lower prices off-season.

CARIBOO-CHILCOTIN DISCOVERER

Eight days of scenery and history make this tour an education in itself. Start in Vancouver and take the most scenic rail trip in North America, the British Columbia Railway to the Cariboo-Chilcotin region. For 200 miles there's a continuous panorama of mountains, rivers, lakes, gorges; and an incredible climb up the Fraser Canyon from water level to a narrow ledge 3,000 feet above the river! Into ranching country and a day in Williams Lake. Then onward to Quesnel. A bus to Barkerville, the gold rush capital of the Cariboo. And a visit to Barkerville Historical Park. See a wooden waterwheel and relics of the 1860 Cariboo Gold Rush at Quesnel Museum.

A bus takes you to Prince George for an overnight stop. Then the Skeena takes you along the Yellowhead route to Bulkley River Canyon. Another bus at Hazelton to the "K SAN", a Gitksan Indian village. Where you learn some of the lore of the tribe in authentic longhouses. All this is at the junction of the Skeena and Bulkley Rivers and under Rocher Deboile Mountain. A breathtaking setting. Here there's the greatest number of totem poles in Canada. A day in Prince Rupert, halibut capital of the world. Return on Skeena to Jasper along the Skeena River. Which boasts villages on stilts; Scandinavian fjords; waterfalls; canyons; mountains; and the impressive Kathryn Glacier on Hudson Bay Mountain. View towering Mount Robson before arriving Jasper; dine at Jasper Park Lodge which overlooks Lac Beauvert. Cruise around Maligne Lake and Canyon. The Super Continental takes you back to Vancouver.

VIA SE-28 $475. from Vancouver.

BRITISH COLUMBIA DISCOVERER

A five day cornucopia of Rocky Mountain scenery. Ride three great day-light trains, offering spectacular mountain vistas. First the Super Continental from Vancouver along the Fraser Valley. See the rugged Fraser Canyon and Hell's Gate. Spend a day in Jasper. Cruise Maligne Lake. View Lac Beauvert. Enjoy the amenities of Jasper Park Lodge. Head west on the Skeena to Prince Rupert. From the train photograph mountains, waterfalls, canyons, a glistening glacier, fjords, fishing villages on stilts. Visit a Gitksan village to learn Indian longhouse lore. Finale includes all-day scenic trip on British Columbia Railway. Continuous panorama of ranchlands, canyons, mountains, lakes, rivers, gorges. Breathtaking view of Fraser Canyon from a ledge 3,000 feet above water level.

VIA SE-29 $375. from Vancouver.

ROCKY DISCOVERER

Unique mini-tour of Rocky Mountains without hotels. Ride two of Canada's best trains. Board Canadian at Vancouver, destination Lake Louise. View the Fraser Valley from dome car. Wake up next morning in mountain wonderland. Climb the Big Hill up Kicking Horse Pass through spiral tunnels. Change to sightseeing bus for all-day trip along Icefield Parkway to Jasper. Hours of magnificent scenery. Stop at Columbia Icefield to view glacier. Opportunity to ride unusual snowmobiles. Free time in Jasper to sightsee. Board Super Continental

Wildlife in the west.

Nature at its best.

Rocky Mountain high.

