

HAVE A HOLIDAY FÊTE IN QUÉBEC

back to Montreal. And the overnight Cavalier to Toronto.

VIA SE-42 $275. from Toronto.
Lower prices off-season.

ONTARIO/QUÉBEC DISCOVERER

This ten-day trip shows you the best of both Provinces. In armchair-comfort. Start sightseeing in Toronto from the Casa Loma to the CN Tower (Toronto's "Cloud Nine"). Stay in a downtown hotel so you're near the action. Then on to Niagara Falls for a night. Take in the sights of Queen Victoria Park, Table Rock, Whirlpool Rapids, Floral Clock. Go up Skylon Tower for a panoramic view of the Falls lit to new beauty at night. Then it's "All aboard" for Kingston and a tour of this Limestone City which was Sir John A. MacDonald's home. A three-hour paddlewheel cruise takes you to the Thousand Islands. Ottawa next. For a two-night stand. Taking in the Parliament Buildings; Rockcliff Park; Rideau Hall. Cruise the Rideau Canal and Ottawa River. A fast VIA train to Montreal, your home for two nights. There explore the modern quiet and clean Metro system of Montreal. Shop in international boutiques. Wine and dine in gourmet style. This is the city of joie-de-vivre. Go on to Quebec City for two nights.

Sightsee Montmorency Falls (100 feet higher than Niagara!); Ste. Anne-de-Beaupre; and the winding cobbled streets of Lower Town Quebec. There are dozens of walks. Specially the wooden boardwalk of Dufferin Terrace at the Chateau Frontenac, high above the St. Lawrence. Train back to Montreal. Continuing by Cavalier to Toronto overnight.
VIA SE-43 $375. from Toronto.
Lower prices off-season.

SAGUENAY LAC ST. JEAN DISCOVERER

This eight-day tour shows you fjords; a 17th-century farm; a ghost town; amazing scenery. And gives you a car to enjoy it all at your own speed. First a train from Toronto or Southwestern Ontario. Overnight to Montreal. Shop. Sightsee. Then the train to Chicoutimi and a 317-mile run through the rural beauty of Quebec. Three nights in Chicoutimi and a cruise on the Saguenay River. Your rental car lets you explore the Lac St. Jean area. Go to a ghost town at Val Jalbert; the zoological gardens at St. Felicien; and the Indian Village at Pointe Bleue. Drive the Murray Bay countryside. You stay two nights in a local hotel. Tour around Murray Bay. Continue at leisure to Quebec City. There's an artists colony at Baie St. Paul; a wildlife refuge at Cap Tourmente; the famous healing shrine of Ste. Anne-de-Beaupre; the cable car to the top of Mont Ste. Anne; olde worlde Ile d'Orleans and the Montmorency Falls. In Quebec City a sight-seeing tour shows you the full charm of this walled city. Before you board the Rapido for Montreal (Toronto passengers continue on the overnight Cavalier) you have time for a pleasant ferry ride across the St. Lawrence to Levis. And a walk around Place Royale.

VIA SE-44 $315. from Montreal.
$350. from Toronto.

Lower prices off-season.

GASPE COAST DISCOVERER

French Canada at its most unspoiled is what you'll see on this seven-day tour of the farthest tip of Quebec. Board the Ocean in Montreal for the overnight trip to the Lower St. Lawrence and Gaspé Coast. The mighty St. Lawrence dominates the scene. Then the beautiful Matapedia Valley. See the awesome Percé Rock. And Bonaventure Island, the fabled bird sanctuary. Drink in the peace and quiet. Two nights in a Percé hotel. From Percé to Carleton on the Baie des Chaleurs, which is full of the joys

Parliament Buildings, Ottawa, Ont.

Saguenay River, Que.

Percé Rock, Gaspé, Que.

