

Golden Agers Pot luck supper

A very warm evening greeted the Acton Golden Age Club when they held their May evening on Wednesday the 21 at St. Albans Hall.

In connection with Senior Citizens Week, which is June 15-21, the members readily voted to have a Pot Luck supper on their June evening meeting - the 18.

Final details for the bus trip to the Mohawk on Senior Citizens day - Tuesday May 27 were finalized by the convenor

Laura Dennis.

For our evenings entertainment, we travelled via slides and through the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jennings of Eden Mills, to New Zealand. These picturesque slides showed us just what that part of the world is like with its vast mountains, sheep grazing land and interesting towns. Our appreciation goes to Mr. and Mrs. Jennings whose commentary was delightful.

Servicing up a delicious lunch of barbecued hotdogs and hamburgers are left Carl Rosenquist and right Don Lindsay, during St. Alban's church picnic Sunday.

CWL installs officers

On Tuesday, May 13, twenty-five members of St. Joseph's Catholic Women's League met for the installation Mass of the new executive.

Following the mass, the regular business meeting convened in the Parish Hall. Plans are being made for a corn roast on September 7 and a teen dance on October 24.

The season will be closed with a pot luck supper on Wednesday, June 10 at 6.30 at the Parish Hall.

renewed interest of the citizens of Acton and the various organizations, in Decoration Day.

We solicit the attendance of all members, ordinary, associate and fraternal, to attend the parade. For those unable to parade, they may join the service at Fairview Cemetery.

Uniforms are optional. Dress should be reasonably formal.

Comrades, please make every effort to attend, I can ramble through many words of reason and praise but it boils down to our own motto;

Lest We Forget

8 mothers at meeting

Eight mothers from the Acton area attended the La Leche League of Ontario Area Conference in Dundas on Friday and Saturday May 23 and 24.

A variety of informative sessions were available on the topics of nutrition, childbirth, breast-feeding, parenting and discipline. As well, a session, "Fathering in Today's World" was available for the many fathers in attendance. Many babies and young children accompanied their parents to the conference.

NOTICE OF MEETING

AT Brookville Hall - Nassagaweya on Friday, June 6th, 1980 at 8:30 p.m.

All citizens and taxpayers of Nassagaweya who are concerned about the rising costs of the regional and board of education levies against us for 1980 - reflected by a 40% increase in our property taxes - and would like to discuss the possibility of opting out of the Region of Halton and the Town of Milton, thus reverting to the status of our old and solvent Township of Nassagaweya within a county government, are cordially invited to attend a meeting at Brookville Hall (Guelph Line - 4 miles north of the Village of Campbellville) - on Friday evening June 6th, 1980 at 8:30 p.m.

Brent Andrew Smith, infant son of Anne and Bruce Smith, and Lisa Earle, infant daughter of Linda and Wade Earle, were dedicated at a special service in Knox Presbyterian Church recently. Rev. Nobel Dean was the officiating pastor.

Funeral services were conducted in Guelph on Tuesday May 20 for Edward (Ted) Archibald. Ted resided and farmed on the first line for many years before retiring to Guelph, and was well known to many for his cheery neighbourliness and community living. Sympathy from friends and former neighbours of this community are extended to his wife Mary and family.

returned from a vacation in Germany.

Mrs. George Campbell and son Cort of Sundridge have been visiting Judy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bould, Michelle and Matthew.

Some of the guests who attended the 18th anniversary of the Presbyterian Church were from Eden Mills United Church, Speedside United and Rockwood Presbyterian.

Rev. Robert Hyde was guest minister at this special service.

The Friendly Seniors met on Wednesday afternoon. A picnic is planned for June at the McKelvie home in Arkell. A social time was enjoyed.

The Presbyterian Women held a short meeting after lunch break at the annual church cleaning. Mrs. Barden opened the meeting with an appropriate prayer "Bless this Mess." A nice donation was received from the daughters of the late Roy Gordon (Mrs. Marjorie McPhail and family and Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Lasby and family). Mr. Gordon will be sadly missed by the congregation and we give thanks to God for his works of faith and labors of love. Eden Mills congregation will join with Rockwood congregation for an outdoor church service and picnic on June 8 at the Bomber Farm in Rockwood. The next meeting will be at the church on June 24. The meeting closed with prayer and then it was back to the cleaning.
