

Hugh and Eunice Reid celebrated 55 years of marriage recently. Residents of the Third Line Erin Township for many years the couple now live in Guelph. Daughters Mary Livingstone, Bessie Peck and families, all of Georgetown, helped the couple celebrate the occasion.

Reids 55 years wed

Fifty-five years of happy marriage was celebrated recently by Hugh and Eunice Reid of Guelph.

Originally from the Tenth Line of Erin Township, Eunice Graham a teacher, married Hugh Reid, a farmer of the Third Line, Erin Township, on May 20, 1925. For the next 32 years they lived on the same farm and until retiring in Guelph.

Special guest at their home on their anniversary was Mrs. Reid's brother, Morgan Graham. The following Sunday, 21 immediate members including Mr. Reid's brother and sisters gathered at the home of their daughter Mary and her husband Don Livingstone and family in Georgetown for a buffet dinner. Daughter Bessie Peck and husband Douglas Peck also from Georgetown were present and although he couldn't attend a phone call was received from their only son Clarence Reid and family from Victoria, B.C.

They have nine grandchildren and three great grandchildren. To celebrate the occasion Mr. Reid wore the same suit he was married in 55 years ago. He is 86 and his wife is 85.

Couple exchange vows in double-ring service

A double-ring, candle-light ceremony marked the marriage of Lorna Eileen Sayers, daughter of Mrs. Florence Sayers-Gough and the late Mr. James Sayers of Acton and Gerril Jasper Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Bell of Georgetown on May 17 at Knox Presbyterian Church.

The bride was given away by her uncle, Gordon Johnston, and wore a floor-length gown of French satin, decorated with Chantilly lace on bodice and cuffs and a four tier veil with a Juliet cap. She carried a round arrangement of yellow roses and baby's breath.

The gown was made by the groom's mother while the veil was made by Mrs. Barrie Buchanan.

The maid of honor was Elaine Foster of Acton while bridesmaids were Mrs. Shirley Wilson and Mrs. Lynda Sayers-Patenaude, both sisters of the bride, and Carla Bell, sister of the groom. They each carried a round arrangement of white daisies and baby's breath.

Bill McTaggart of Burlington was best man while Robert Allen of Georgetown and Jim and Andy Bell of Georgetown, both brothers of the groom, were the ushers. David Wilson, nephew of the bride was ring bearer while Jennifer Wilson, niece of the bride was flower girl.

Approximately 110 guests attended the reception at Acton Curling Club. Guests came from as far away as Holland, and Texas, as well as Oshawa, Port Perry, Burlington, Brantford, Cambridge, Kitchener, Brampton, Hamilton, Toronto and Orangeville.

After a week's honeymoon in Florida, the couple is residing in Georgetown.

Showers for the bride were given by Mrs. Gordon Johnston, Mrs. Mildred Sanders, Mrs. Florence Sayers-Gough and Elaine Foster.

A trousseau tea and rehearsal party was given by Carla and Mrs. Bell.

A stag for the groom was given by Mr. McTaggart, the best man.

Lorna and Gerril Bell cut their wedding cake during the reception after their marriage on May 17 at Knox Presbyterian Church in Acton. The newlyweds honeymooned in Florida.

Appoint Hydro, elect next time

Members will be appointed by council to Halton Hills Hydro Commission for the first two year term and then will be elected during the municipal elections. If this method can legally be used.

Halton Hills general committee Monday night, recommended the appointments for the first two year term because the Halton Hills Hydro Commission has only been in operation since April, and councillors agreed at this time the same members should stay in office.

Councillor Roy Booth agreed with the first term appointments but stressed after that period the hydro commissioners should be elected by the ward system.
