

Members of the Acton Bulldogs tug-of-war team combined their strength to bring home the trophy at Saturday's Highland Games in Georgetown.

Bull dogs hang on

The Acton Bulldogs tug-of-war team put an end to Brampton Firefighters winning streak by taking the Speyside Highlands champion at the Georgetown Fairgrounds Saturday.

To reach the championship, the Bulldogs also defeated Georgetown Fireman and the Georgetown Ambulance tug-of-war team.

On the Acton tugging team is Len Midland, Chuck Mitchell, John Emerson, Willy Mitchell, Denzel Heights, Jim Mitchell, Walker McClaren, Terry Winters, Larry McAfee, Cliff Wedge, Dennis Mitchell, Don Franklin and Bob Mitchell.

The Bulldogs were sponsored by Acton Family Restaurant and Campbell's Furniture.

The Mitchell brothers give it all they've got during the Georgetown Highland Games tug-of-war. The Acton Bulldogs were the event champions.

Van's consistent at losing

Van's, of the Acton Men's Industrial league certainly is consistent. They lost again, their eighth match in nine games, Sunday at Prospect Park. This time Freedom romped over them 15-3. Earlier in the week Firestone dropped them 6-2.

Van's scoring plays came all in the sixth inning with Dave Piehl, Gary Pickles and Dave Ploer, crossing the plate. Freedom had jumped into a 9-0 lead by the bottom of the third, with eight big runs. Rick McArthur, Allan Hall, Mike McGregor, George Wallis, Ken Paisley, Barry Buchanan and Allan Campbell all scored.

Bob Little, Paisley, Buchanan and Campbell scored in the fourth, Doug Ford touched home in the fifth, and Mike McGregor slugged a home bringing in Hall in the sixth. Ford also scored in the sixth to make it 15-3.

In other games Sunday, Station Hotel handed Firestone Oldtimers a 10-7 loss, and Unisal topped Electric 17-9.

Scoring for Station in the top of the first was Bob Hanson, Dave Allen, Larry King, Murray McNabb and Jamie Morris.

George Gratton batted a homer in the second with Allan on base. Larry King and Morris also crossed the plate.

Allan scored Station's 10th run in the eighth inning.

Don Archibald touched home in the second, Terry Masales scored in the sixth and seventh, Earl Burt, Ed Woods and Doug Pratt crossed the plate in the seventh for Firestone.

Nine runs in the sixth inning helped Unisal on their way to 17-9 victory.

Unisal runs came from Wally Ella, Ian Campbell, Charlie Harrison, Ralph Petch, Larry Ciglen, Ken Pilgrim, Al Boufield, Roy Bosch and Glen McKenzie.

Scott Somerville, Steve Townsley, Lyle Prueter, and Jim McNabb each scored two runs for Electric with single scores coming from Papillon.

Earlier in the week, the Oldtimers disposed of Van's 6-2 in the Wednesday night game at Prospect Park.

Oldtimers' six runs came from Jules Russiani, Jim James, Doug Pratt, Vince Thornton and two from Earl Burt.

Denis Kirtan and Phiel scored the two Van's runs.

Tonight Van's has a chance to redeem themselves when they square off with Halton Hills Electric at Prospect Park. Game time is 8:30 p.m.

Fobert under spell

Fobert Real Estate felt the black magic of Friday the 13, as they suffered their first loss in the season - a 5-4 defeat at the hands of Acton Firemen.

The game has the fans on their feet in the final inning. Chris Tennant was on the mound for the Firemen while Bob Merriken and Stan Clarke handling the hurling for Fobert.

Sunday's slate of games at Prospect Park is cancelled due to the Acton Softball Invitational, but Firestone and Unisal meet in Limehouse at 8:30 p.m.

Fobert's Martin

Franklin butted the only homer of the contest. The win was the Firemen's second.

Umpires for the game were Bob Paul and Dave Piehl. Kym Lakin was scorekeeper.

Sunday's game was defaulted by Achilles Motors, giving the Acton Restaurant Outsiders their first win of the season.

Leys bats three homers

J & T Sports came up with their first win of the season on Monday, June 9, by defeating Home Hardware 11-5.

Scoring for J & T Sports: Clayton Leys, three home runs, Heather Willmott with two wins and one homer, David Patey with two runs, Tracy Hagan with 1 run, Chad Neil with one run and Mark Manuel with one run.

Racking up runs for Home Hardware was David Deforest with one run and a homer, David Blashuk, one homer, Tammy Hickey one homer and Dwayne Swartz one run.

Emily's Natural Foods defeated Indusmin 6-2 in Grasshopper house league ball action at Donald Mann Park, Tuesday, June 10.

Runs for Indusmin were scored by Jason Johnston and Tracy Smith.

Good hits by Stephen Waring and Jason Piper couldn't help them.

Scoring for Emily's were Matthew Ginn, Mike Noseworthy, Brad Hayter, Teri Petrillo, Michael McGrath and Bill Gillies.

On Monday, in a close and well-played game, Emily's claimed victory over Home Hardware 8-7. Home Hardware counted runs by David Deforest, David Blashuk, Brenda Walsh, Dwayne Swartz, Chris Kempton and two for Steve Kolozvani, but they weren't enough to catch Emily's.

Scoring three times for Emily's was their secret weapon called Brad Hayter.

Other runs were scored by Jason Wedemire, Matthew Ginn, Steve Cullen, Chris Hayter and Michael McGrath.

Roadrunners yield

Akers-Clark Real Estate doubled their wins over the past few games in the Georgetown Industrial Fastball League, pulling them even with a slumping Norval squad in the basement.

Akers-Clark picked up their fourth win of the year last Wednesday evening as they earned a 7-3 win over Philip Publishing.

In a Sunday night contest Akers-Clark put up a strong fight against league leading C & S

Plumbing before giving up seven fifth inning runs, bringing the match to an abrupt end.

Norval dropped three straight games this week leaving them tied in the cellar. They took a 9-3 win from R. S. Muffler and then went sour, dropping games to Acton, Philip and Peel Police.

The Policemen also took a 7-3 win over the Merchants.

In other games C & S Plumbing defeated Acton Roadrunners 4-0, Philip topped Hornby by the same score, the Merchants upset C & S 8-4 and R. S. and Hornby played to a 7-7 extra inning tie.

Limehouse minor

The Limehouse Peeewe Girls were defeated by Lovville 21-6. Tammy Braithwaite played good game in left field and Francine LeBlanc played a strong third base as well as contributing at bat. Lori Book was also heavy at bat.

On Saturday June 14 the Limehouse Midget Girls played an exhibition game against Cheltenham and came out on top by the score of 7-5. All girls played a good game with the help of Linda Thomson and Rhonda Case.

In the fifth Marion Case hit a single to bring in the winning run. Lorraine Brown crossed the plate to make the score 6-5. Sherry Wilson was excellent at bat with a double, single and a home run. Sherry was also attributed with 3 R.B.I.'s. Tracey Clarke was also a heavy hitter going two for four with a single and a double.

Last week the boys defeated Acton Standard Products 4-2. The win was due to hit and heads up base running. Sean McCutcheon, Billy Shoebright, Tim Wilson and Gary Foster scored the four runs for Limehouse. Greg Lazo pitched well in relief. Alan Scott made a super double play.

Glen Williams defeated the Acton Boys 22-9. Matt Hock played a strong first base. Cory Wilson hit the ball for a home run to try to even the odds.

Dwayne Hay won the annual Acton Open last weekend at Halton Heights Golf course. He shot a 69.

J & T Ladies keep on winning

J & T Sports of the Acton Ladies Softball League extended their winning streak to four games with a victory over Southwest Sweethearts, June 10th.

Janet McCutcheon started off the scoring in the first inning followed by runs from Kathy McClure and Kathy Newman. From then on it was all J & T adding up 24 runs over the next six innings to the Sweethearts two.

Everyone scored during the game with big hits coming from Kathy Newman with two homers and Joanne Miller with a homer and two triples Janet Cunneynworth also came up big with a triple.

Winning pitcher was Shelley Young with seven strike outs and one walk.

J & T is at home against the Curling Club Thursday, June 19th at Robert Little.
