Award winning curlers... er... golfers

What do curlers do in the summertime? They engage in more tournaments only this time the sport is golf. Anne Ridley of the ladies curling club won the tournament along with Alice McIntern. May Dumarsh and Donna Neely placed second. Awarding and receiving the trophies are left to right: Finni Verblk, Anne Ridley, May Dumarsh, Donna Neely and Karen Archibald.

Limehouse men bat big wins

This past week saw a lot of turn about play, with the Hawks, Oilers and the Rockets coming up with some big wins to make the game more unpredictable and exciting.

The Huttonville Hawks upset the highly rated Limehouse Hustlers Tuesday night when a three batter was hit by Peter Blacklock scoring three runs. Most of the damage was done in the six run fourth inning.

Pete Dickey reached base safely on four attempts for the Hawks. Jim Fiddler stroked two single while Bill Fisher drove in one of the Limehouse runs. Huttonville Hawks signed the Hustlers 9-5.

In the second game the Indusmin Rockets had an easy win over the Limehouse Rocks getting 19 runs to the Rocks one. Brian Moore pitched a strong game and went three for three while Marty Zito scored the only run for the Rocks. Bob Campbell pitched six innings for the Rockets and gave up only two hits. Dennis Jennings went 3 for 3 and brought in five of the runs. John Duffield and Brian Johnston had their share of hits with five and brought home five runs between them.

The Oilers had an easy win over the Huttonville Blue Jays when they failed to field a team and had to forfeit. Both teams did better on Sunday when they both had wins.

The Oilers played the Hustlers and beat them 6-3. Hustlers are on the skids. This makes three losses in a row. Carl Reed and Dennis Hardman held down second and third for the Hustlers and hoped to keep the scoring down until the bottom of the seventh when two errors charged on the Hustlers allowed three runs to score.

Steve Favre, Joe Scott, Charlie Shea, and Gary Fike counted a run each and Tony Case scored twice.

In the second game the Limehouse Rocks took an early lead when Gord Thompson and Marty Zito scored in the first inning and Marty came home again in the third.

The Hawks brought in Ted Lyons and Rob Reid and the score was 3-2. Then Wayne Doell of the Rocks scored in the sixth and Rob Reid, Fred Arsenault and Gary Gillett of the Hawks brought their side up to five runs. The Rocks scored twice more in the eighth with scoring done by George Kocilag and Lawrence Smith and the final was Rocks 6 Hawks 5.

Bulldogs lose grip

The Acton Bulldogs tug-of-war team ended in third spot at the Port Elgin Highland games Saturday, after losing grip on South East Hope and Renfrew Bulldogs. South East Hope finished first with Renfrew second. Ashfield ended in fourth place.

The Bulldogs compete again this Saturday at Glen Williams Canada Day celebrations.

Bousfield's grand slam aids grasshoppers

A grand slam by John Bousfield helped Glenlea Drug Mart on their way to a 6-0 victory over Indusmin Tuesday, June 17 in Grasshopper ball at Sir Donald Mann Park.

Bousfield's homer batted home Warren Budway, Kerri Bousfield and Dwayne Rogers.

Shery McFadden and Brandon Bousfield also crossed the plate for Glenlea.

Jason Piper slugged the only hit for Indusmin. Jill Murray first baseman for Indusmin and Joe Willmott at third base made an excellent play.
