

The jubilant Halton Hills council waterball team. Ross Knechtel, Terry Grubbe, Russ Miller (with the raciest shorts in town) and John McDonald.

Local dignitaries appeared on stage at the opening ceremonies Friday. Left to right Halton Hills mayor Pete Pomeroy, MPP Julian Reed, weekend chairperson and councillor Terry Grubbe, Councillor Ross Knechtel, and Miss Acton Fall Fair Cathy McGrath.

Y's Men's bed won the bed race by default Saturday as they were the only team who showed up. Back, left to right, Jim Rivetti, Ed Leatherland and Doug Leys. On the bed, Dave Hunter and Clayton Leys are congratulated by Back to Acton Days chairperson Terry Grubbe.

The Acton Free Press, Wednesday, July 2, 1980

Christine Arbie wore her Indian Voyager costume in the parade, modernizing it a bit with an umbrella.

Lisa Vilestra, 3, cuddles her dog Coco during the pet contest.

Janet Fleming and Louis Charlebois were on hand for the opening ceremonies. They handed out prizes for the poster and essay contests.

Fairy Lake was perfect Sunday for boating(?)

BACK TO ACTON DAYS

Mac and Joyce Sprowl won the best old fashioned costume contest. Mrs. Sprowl's outfit was her grandmother's wedding dress and is 102 years old. She wore black because her mother died shortly before the wedding.

Bob McGregor's Scottish Square Dancers entertained at the opening ceremonies.

Jim Carswell found a secluded area to take part in the fishing derby Sunday.

Herb Dodds, right, weighs Dennis Swinamer's (centre) fish while Brad Youmans looks on.

MPP Julian Reed entertained at the opening ceremonies with his banjo.

Acton Citizens' Band entertained at the opening ceremonies of Back to Acton Days Friday evening.

"I'm the Mayor of Acton, too!" shouts Pete Pomeroy's t-shirt, a gift from Back to Acton Days chairperson Terry Grubbe.

Photos by Helen and Gord Murray

Vic Bristow was caller at Bingo.

Laura Lee Hachey gives pal Muffin a kiss for coming in second in the original tricks contest.

Miss Acton Fall Fair Cathy McGrath was on hand for the waterball contest.

The Acton Free Press battles the councillors in waterball.