It's anchor's aweigh
time in Ontario!

We're overflowing with unique waterways. Over a million! Ship out now and soak in the Province from a whole new point of view.

The greatest!

The Great Lakes. Five big ones — all connected. Huron, Superior, Erie, Ontario and Michigan. Together they form the largest body of fresh water in the world. In addition to major ports along the Great Lakes, there are many small harbours providing good facilities for the pleasure boater.

Uplifting!

The Trent-Severn Waterway meanders through 384 peaceful kilometres from Trenton, on Lake Ontario, to Port Severn on Georgian Bay. It boasts 44 lift locks. The one at Peterborough is the second largest of its kind in the world.

See worthy!

The incredible St. Lawrence Seaway. It's Canada's water highway. Long before the coming of the highway engineer, Ontario's native peoples and, later, our early settlers, traders, and trappers depended upon this waterway for transportation and commerce. The powerful St. Lawrence is a picturesque part of this fascinating heritage.

Ontario is a water wonderland.

There's Georgian Bay, Lake of the Woods, Kawartha Lakes, Muskoka Lakes, The Rideau Waterway and more. For complete details, pick up a copy of Ontario Boating at an Eaton's Ontario Alive Kiosk.
