The Acton Mixed team rose to the standard they have been striving for all season—finally winning a game Thursday against Brampton.

The team won four matches to two. Winning teams for Acton were Joan Morris and Margot Bollert in the ladies doubles, Mike Morris and June Lewis, Chris Steen and George Williams in the mixed with Gerry Veldman and Bernie Kovacs rounding off the team's first win, but not their last.

The ladies team had trouble when they fell to a top-notch Ontario Racquets Club four matches to none.

The courts will be busy this week with the 1980 mixed doubles championships taking place. The finals will be this weekend.

Roadrunners in first place

Thursday, July 31 in Acton saw the Roadrunners take over sole possession of first place with a 4-0 whitewash of Akers-Clark. Joe Deforest had a one hitter and struck out 12 batters along the way. Ed Hillier, for the second consecutive night, had a good game at the plate for the Roadrunners. Back in Georgetown C & S Plumbing embarrassed Norval 13-1 ending the game in 5 innings.

Monday July 29 and Tuesday July 29 there were four rained out games which will be scheduled at a later date.

Wednesday July 30, Phil Publishing made it six games without a loss by posting a 6-2 score over R/S Muffler. Akers-Clark Real Estate beat Peel Police 4-3 in the bottom of the seventh. Gene Inglis hit a solo shot for Peel Police while Werner Mikoleit connected for a two run homer for Akers-Clark.

Hornby came back from an early deficit to hand C & S Plumbing an 8-6 defeat. Acton Roadrunners got off to an early lead and never relinquished it by beating Norval 7-2.

Standings including games Thursday July 31/80.

Midgets nipped

Acton midget girls were edged by Georgetown 4-3 Wednesday.

Tina Gunn was the first Acton girl to cross the plate in the fifth inning, after singles by Linda Osso, Janet Britton and Andrea Jenkinson, to make it 2-1.

Gunn and Sandra Brundell touched home in the seventh, but Georgetown had already counted runs by Julie Fournier and Connie Hay in the sixth and seventh, clinching the game.

Limehouse minor ball

The squirt girls were defeated by Milton 25-4. Lynn Herrmann, Shannon Burrell and Tool along with Jennifer Scott's home run made up the four runs for Limehouse.

Jennifer Scott and Shannon Burrell also played a great defensive game making some nice catches.

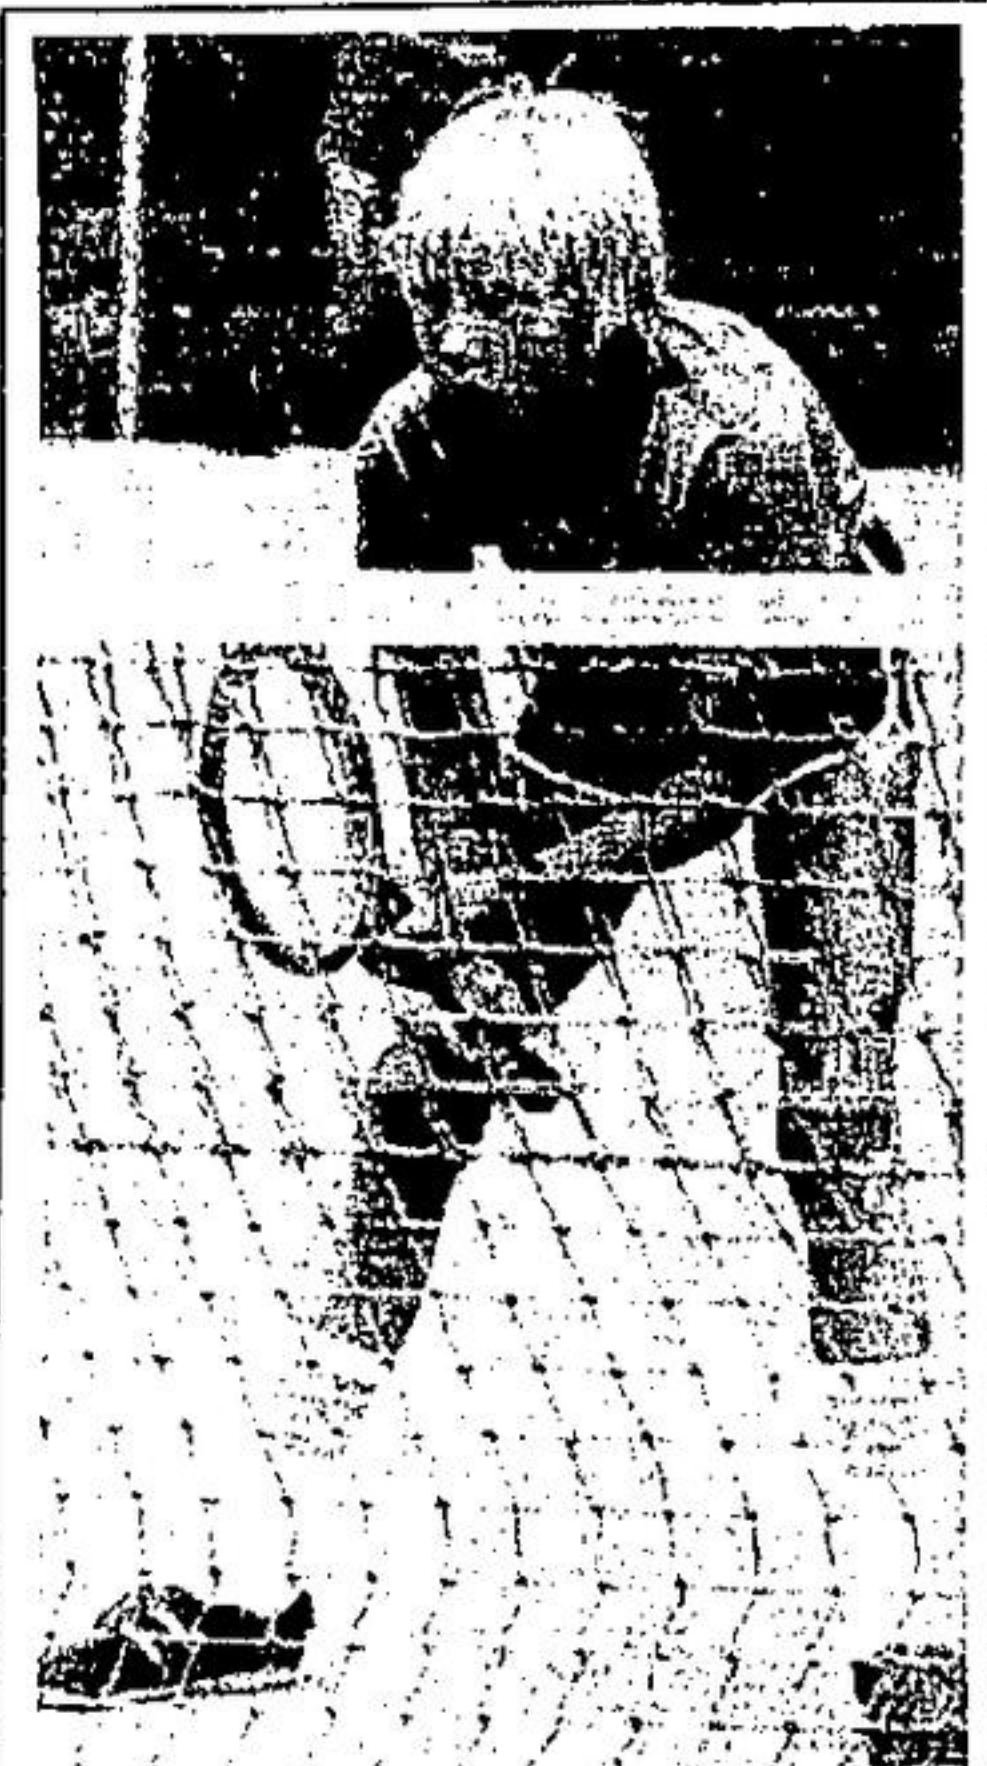

The PeeWee girls lost to Glen Williams 8-7. Rhonda Case pitched her best game ever as well as having an RBI. Kendall Batchelor met the ball for a home run. The team put forth an all round great effort.

The girls also lost to Lowville. The heavy hitters were Judy Thomson with a home run and Lori Book also had a home run with 3 RBIs.

In two suspense filled games the Squirt boys came home with a split. Against Lowville Allan Scott pitched a four hitter and allowed only one run to count. This did the boys in as the score was 1-0 in favour of Lowville.

In the second game the boys beat Ormish 8-7. In the fourth inning the boys were down 7-0 but came back with five runs in their half and three more runs in the fifth to win the game.

Midget girls came out on top 24-5 against Hornby.

Eric Veldman of Acton lies in wait during a tennis match recently at Rockwood courts. Veldman is a junior member of the Acton Tennis Club. The mixed doubles championships are underway this week at the courts with the finals scheduled for the weekend.

Sale Saturday for soccer trip

A bake and yard sale will be held Saturday, to help finance the Soccer Club's trip to the United States later this month.

The sale will be at 121 Acton Boulevard all day.

The Club is travelling to Lockport, New York for two days, August 23 and 24. Three teams will be going along with 45 parents.

Three games will be played Saturday and Sunday each. The first game for boys aged 14-16 will kick off at 11:10 a.m. The second match for girls aged 16-18 will start at 1 p.m. and the third game for boys 16-18 will begin at 2:30.

Lockport is east of Niagara Falls and Buffalo and has a population of about 25,000.

There will be approximately 15 players per team.

PeeWee tourney team

The Acton peeWee tournament team, a squad comprised of tri-county and Halton-Rural players, competed in two tournaments recently.

In the first tournament July 12 in Lindsay they lost all three games. The team found their schedule—three games within six hours—a bit tiring, but they were only outclassed in one match.

On Saturday, the allstars competed in the Rockwood tournament with the same results. To make a peeWee allstar squad more competitive will require more practice, a difficult task when players are involved in other tri-county and Halton-Rural squads.

They lost two games.

Tournament results are not reflective of team efforts, however. Since Acton Minor Baseball is not organized to provide ball for only the elite players, but to give all boys and girls a chance to play on a rep team, the peeWees come up against some stiff competition.
