

Roadrunners grab first in GIFL

For the second season in a row the Acton Roadrunners captured the pennant in the nine-team Georgetown Industrial Fastball League.

Because they finished on the league's top rung with 45 points, the Acton squad received an automatic bye in the first round of playoffs.

Acton downed the Merchants, who hold the final playoff berth, Thursday. It is too soon to tell who will face who in the first round of postseason action.

On their way to clinching first place the Roadrunners creamed second place Philp Publishing 10-0 during an August 11 game.

Wednesday the Acton team arrested the Peel Police squad 12-1.

Another Peel squad eliminated the Roadrunners in the semi-final round of the annual Philp Publishing-R/S Muffler 12-team tournament last weekend.

Three-Phase Electric

of Bramalea blanked the Acton squad with four runs. Three-Phase went to capture the tourney crown.

Leading up the elimination Roadrunners nipped a Toronto National Trust group 2-0 then slipped by Philp Publishing 5-4.

Acton Travel also threw a team into the tournament.

Acton Travel downed Akers-Clark by a 7-5 margin in their first game, but lost 7-1 to Three Phase Electric in the second.

3-Phase Electric of Bramalea walked off with top honors in the Philp-R/S Fastball Tourney on the weekend. Here 3-Phase tags Acton's Gary Moore as he attempts to take third during a 4-0 3-Phase semi-final win.

Curlers slide into first

In one of the tightest played games of the season, the Curling Club Ladies defeated J & T Ladies by a score of 7-2 on August 12, clinching first place for regular season play. Curling Club's scoring was limited to the first, fourth and seventh innings. Home runs by Janet Fleming and Debbie Reid added punch to the team effort. The ladies' defence for the game was excellent, holding J & T to one inning of scoring.

Plays at home base by pitcher Joyce Iglesias and first-time catcher Heather Ferguson finished off the sixth and seventh innings.

Pitcher Shelly Young for J & T had an excellent game with a total of 13 strike outs.

With the rest of the league teams finishing their games this week, playoffs should begin the week of August 25.

Games are played at the Robert Little School field on Tuesday and Thursday evenings.

Robert Little, whose name is memorialized by a public school in Acton, was born February 7, 1835, at Woolwich, Kentshire, England.

Foberts clinch Condo lead

Fobert clinched first place in the Acton Condo Sports Association with the 14-7 win over Jug City Sunday.

Keith Smiley with two homers and Ray Williams with one powered Fobert's offence. Fred Landry blasted a solo shot for Jug City.

Ridley Cartage Firemen without pitcher

Chris Tennant managed only five innings as they were overpowered 22-2 by second place Acton Restaurant.

Ray and Jules Russiani shared the chugging chores as they held the Firemen to two hits.

A three-run rally in the sixth inning gave Jug City a close 7-5 win over Ridley Cartage Firemen

Friday at Prospect Park.

The victory gave the milkmen third place in the standings leaving the Firemen at the bottom of the heap.

Factory League

In Acton Inter-Factory three pitch softball league play last week Heller's 9-Easy Pieces remained in top spot with a 26-4 win over Heller's Tanners.

Beardmore Bandits dumped Commercial Shearing 33-11 while Beardmore Packers smothered Beardmore Chrome Crusaders 28-11.

The league standings are as follows:

Team	W	L	P
Heller's 9-Easy Pieces	6	1	12
Beardmore Bandits	5	2	10
Beardmore Crusaders	4	3	8
Beardmore Packers	3	4	6
Commercial Shearing	3	4	6
Heller's Tanners	0	7	0

Beardmore Packers and Heller's Tanners go at it tonight at 6:30 at Robert Little's diamond. On August 21 at Speyside Commercial Shearing takes on Heller's 9-Easy Pieces.

Soccer Foxes nip into third

The Acton Foxes took over sole possession of third spot in Girls in Rural League Soccer action last week by virtue of a one to nil match against Bolton.

Nancy Thomas booted the ball over the outstretched hands of the Bolton netminder with less than ten minutes remaining on the clock. Cheri Lindsay got credit for the assist by placing a perfect pass onto Thomas' foot.

The first half of the game ended in a scoreless draw, however the Foxes held the margin in play and it was only a matter of time before the mark was found.

The game featured fast end to end plays.

The Foxes stonewalled a persistent Bolton attack in the remaining minutes of the match. The game, according to coach Carole Saxon, was the finest of the season. "Brilliant" was the only word from team manager John Wright. He returned half way through the tussle from a trip to Lockport New York.

Three Acton teams, the Foxes plus two of the boys squads, are on their way to Lockport next weekend for a series of exhibition encounters. Wright was there before the trip to check the pitch and accommodation.

Philp tops Stags

Philp Publishing of the Georgetown Industrial Fastball League topped Milton Stags last Tuesday evening 3-2 to complete a tournament started in Acton some time ago.

Philp and Stags were to meet in the final of the Acton Roadrunners tournament when rain caused cancellation of the final match. In Tuesday's confrontation the Philp team used a three-run homer by Doug Anderson to wipe out a 2-0 deficit and give the local side the win.

Randy Van Wyck was the winning pitcher for Philp with Ed Dunn taking the loss from the Stags mound.
