Ballinafad Church service cancelled Sunday

by Winifred Smith Rev. Don Stiles was in his usual place on Sunday when he occupied the pulpit to take charge of the church service. He preached his third sermon based on the Gospel of St. Mark. The theme was "A Question of Faith" What Prayer Can Do. He announced that church service would be cancelled next Sunday, August 24. On Aug. 30 Mr. Stiles would be present to continue with the series on Mark's Gospel.

Good news from our hospital patients in Georgetown. Danny Slessoritis is recovering nicely from his recent heart attack. Mrs. Agnes McEnery is expected to be able to leave hospital after an extended stay there.

We were sorry to hear Mrs. Ada McLean fell recently which resulted in a broken hip. She is a patient in Guelph General Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McEnery entertained at their home on the Sixth Line on Sunday. It was in the form of a Jack and Jill shower, the guests of honour being Ronnie McLean and his bride-to-be. Relatives and close friends were present with the young couple much happiness on their approaching marriage which will be early in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse McEnery returned home the end of last week after being away for three weeks when they accompanied friends on a motor trip to the west coast. They went to places of interest there and in the other western provinces. They also had short visits with friends and relatives during the 6000 mile journey.

Ebenezer

by Mrs. R. McLean Next Sunday, August 24, the three churches join for a special treat, at 11 a.m. Rev. Mrs. Ling (Betty Griffiths) is to be the speaker. Lunch will be served afterwards. Note the change in time from 11:30 until 11 a.m.

The speaker last week was Mr. Gillian, from Scarborough, for the Alcohol and Drug concerns. Man has lived through the industrial, nuclear and space ages and we now live in a chemical age, he said.

Marijuana is another dangerous drug and its constant use causes problems.

There is concern regarding legalizing marijuana. We should write to our member of parliament and pray about this matter.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse McEnery returned home the end of last week after being away for three weeks when they accompanied friends on a motor trip to the west coast. They went to places of interest there and in the other western provinces. They also had short visits with friends and relatives during the 6000 mile journey.
