

Clowns and kids marched in the playground finale parade Thursday night through downtown Acton.

Charlotte Osburn celebrated her 90th birthday, Sunday afternoon.

Celebrates 90th Birthday

Friends and relatives gathered Sunday afternoon to honor Charlotte Osburn as she marked her 90th birthday.

The celebration was held at the home of Kathleen and Jack Lawson on the Fourth Line. Mrs. Osburn is Jack Lawson's aunt.

A lifelong resident of Esquesing Township, Mrs. Osburn was born on 15 Sideroad in 1890 and lived on the Fourth Line, north of the Lawson home most of her life. Prior to entering Halton Centennial Manor two years ago she lived in Limehouse.

The former Charlotte McDowell, one of 11 children, married William Osburn in 1910, and was widowed in 1917, when her husband was killed in World War I.

Monday Halton Hills council approved a change in the mutual fire service agreement between the town and Milton at the request of Milton.

The boundary will be moved north from 15 Sideroad to 20 Sideroad now that Milton has a new fire hall in Campbellville.

Mini-bikes at sewage plant

A Churchill Road South resident is upset about mini-bikes roaring around the sewage treatment plant on Sunday afternoons.

George Robertson, who lives in one of the apartment buildings on Churchill South, told Councillors Terry Grubbe and Ross Knechtel at Friday's drop-in that every Sunday there seems to be five or six bikers roaring around on the road into the plant and it is most annoying with them revving their engines.

Poultry CNE champs

Two local poultry breeders did it again! Freddie Kentner and Ron McLean, both of R.R. 3, Acton, walked away from the Canadian National Exhibition poultry show held August 16 with five championships.

Kentner, always a major winner with his white single comb Leghorn chickens, won the best bantam trio and best standard bird.

Golden Agers

Bowling starts soon

Attendance was exceptionally good at the August evening meeting of the Acton Golden Age Club which was held at St. Albans Hall and opened with the Theme Song and O Canada.

Two new members were welcomed into our club. As usual our bus trips were brought up to date by our convenor. New bowlers were asked to sign up for the 1980-81 seasons and we hope many new ones will avail themselves of this opportunity.

At our next afternoon meeting on September 2, we will be entertained by the Choir from Halton Manor.

Birthday greetings were sung to Dora Kennedy. Crokinole and euchre were enjoyed with the winners being: Ladies—Helen Pickett and Irene Terry. Gents—Laura Dennis and Marguerite Taylor.
