Unisal drops Oldtimers, moves to final

Unisal will advance to the finals of the Acton Men's Industrial softball league, after disposing of the Firestone Oldtimers in two straight games. They nipped Firestone 5-4 in the first playoff game last Wednesday night before blasting them 11-3 in the second game Monday night. Both games were under the lights at Prospect Park.

Soccer finals next week

The Acton Minor Soccer Association is planning their finals day, to be held next Saturday, September 13. A tentative schedule will be available in next week's issue of the Acton

Free Press. The finals day will feature all the teams associated with house league soccer. Coaches will notify the parents and players of what time and field they are playing.

Following the finals the day, the AMSA is holding a dance at the Curling Club, starting at 8 p.m. Tickets can be purchased from the coaches or executive members of the club. The cost is $12 per couple.

error and later touched home after Burt hit a single. That tied the game. But a single by Ciglen sent a jubilant McGrath scurrying across the plate for the winning run. Monday night it was merely clean up time. The Oldtimers didn't even come close. Wally Ella, Coe, Bousefield and Bosch all scored in the second inning to make it 4-0. James replied with a run off a two-bagger in the bottom of the second. Firestone came within two when Frank Daley scored a run in the fifth, but Unisal exploded in the sixth with three more runs putting the game out of reach. Glen McKenzie, Charlie Harrison and Bousefield scored in the eighth to finish them off. Bruce McArthur reached home after batting a single in the seventh for Firestone's other run. Unisal will wait for the winner of the Station Hotel-Freedom match-up, with the finals starting either Sunday or next Wednesday. Freedom has the opportunity to wrap up the other semifinal series to-night (Wednesday), when they face Station Hotel at Prospect Park. Game time is 8:15.

Monday they trounced Station 15-1 in the first game of the series. Freedom jumped on Hector Thatcher, especially with an explosive six-run sixth inning. Rick McArthur, for example, scored four runs in six innings, including a four bagger in the second.

George Wallis, Randy Takeda and Ken Paisley all scored runs. Dan Arbic crossed the plate on three separate occasions, once after banging a double, Bob Little touched home twice and Mike McGregor batted two singles and a double enroute to the other three freedom runs. The score would have been 16-1, had Paisley reached home in the sixth. He was tagged up at the plate. Station's lone run came in the sixth as well, with Sid Barnes crossing the plate after he batted a single.
