You've got a Secret!

It looks real. It feels real. And no one will ever know unless you tell them.

After breast surgery, the Silicone Breastform by Camp is the best thing next to the real you. The all-silicone form is soft, like skin. It is proportioned to match your natural breast so you're evenly balanced. It conforms to your body, and responds to your movements. Wear it, and you'll feel like the real woman you are.

Come in and let our trained staff tell you about the Silicone Breastform by Camp — for the total woman.
