as well as pay the taxes on the land.

Cecelia Jolliffe shows some of the merchandise on sale during tomorrow's grand opening of Jollisse Shoes in Leathertown Village on Mill Street. The Jolliffes also have a store in Prince Edward Island.

Friendly folks attract new shoe business

They had been waiting a Acton, says Cecelia Jollisse, owner of the new Jolliffe Shoes at Leathertown Village, is a lot like Prince Edward Island,' she says. "There's the same kind of friendliness."

Mrs. Jolliffe should know, since she, along with the rest of her family, have been running a shoe store in a small town in P.E.I. for the past five years. Now they have expanded to Acton. "We were looking for a small town to open up a business. We don't like big cities," she says, and adds there is a need for shoe stores here.

Although the grand opening won't be until to-(Thursday), Jolliffe has been open last Thursday.

month before that for the shop interior to be Mrs. Jolliffe and one son are operating the Acton store, while her husband, second son and daughter remain in P.E.I. to oversee the other shop.

She said, "I think people are looking for top-of-the-line, quality products for the amount of money they have to spend." Leather is expensive she added, but the price has tapered off, this fall, compared to price increases over the Everything has gone up, she noted.

"We hope to serve our new patrons as best we

Outer collection dips to a third

Efforts by Acton High School's Outers Club to gram. "It seems to have raise funds for tents hurt us; people get out of appear to be threatened the habit," said the by the town's resource science teacher. recovery program.

The first glass collection of the school year by the club Saturday was down about two-thirds the normal amount, according to teacher Jane Zarowny.

monthly collections reap 30 or more barrels.

Halton Hills collects glass, paper and metal under its Divide and Conquer program. The town's program makes a big difference to the Outers Club collection, said Zarowny.

ceased during the summer months while the for cash.

town was pushing its pro-

One of the large sources of used glass in town is the Legion, which Zarowny said has joined the Divide and Conquer

Other regular supporters of the Outers Students and teachers Club, such as Page Glass, gathered 12 barrels full of Indicated they would con-Unusually the tinue. Some residents stored their glass during the summer so that the school's club could it. observed collect Zarowny.

The Outers collection is much older than the town's program. The club, which enourages camping and canoeing, has bought ropes and The school's collection other equipment from the glass which is exchanged

Acton Fall Fair PET SHOW

1:00 p.m.

PLACE:

Sunday, Sept. 21 Fair Grounds

CLASSES (A) GENERAL

1) Most unusual pet 4) Best costumed pet & handler 2) The largest pet 6) The smallest pet 3) Best trained pet 6) Meet unusual performance by a pet

> (B) FOR DOGS & CATS 10 Classifications (See Fair Book)

★ RIBBONS ★

ANIMALS MUST BE CLEAN AND MANAGEABLE BRING ON A LEASH OR IN A BOX

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CALL 853-1620

Need crosswalk changes

Changes are needed in the location of crosswalks painted recently on Acton Boulevard the one councillors heard at Friday's drop-

M.Z. Bennett principal Doug Magwood attended the drop-in to discuss the cross-walks which were approved by council during the summer as part of a package of improved safety for pupils going to school via Churchill Road North and Acton Boulevard. Magwood sald the crossing on Queen Street at Acton Boulevard, which also has an adult guard, has long been in

The principal wondered about a new crosswalk on Acton Boulevard at Peel Street which ends in a ditch. He questioned the need of this crosswalk, especially when winter comes and it is Another new walk leads from a McKenzle-Smith entrance which isn't for student use and ends in a private driveway. Magwood thought this crosswalk should be added at Mill.

There isn't a crosswalk from the school grounds across Acton Boulevard to Mill Street East and existence and works very Magwood felt there should be since many students cross at that

He was pleased with the crosswalk directly in front of M.Z. Bennett which leads to a walk-

Magwood asked the councillors if the two crosswalks he doesn't feel will be too useful could be moved to the Acton Boulevard and McDonald intersections as well as a crosswalk

He said the schools weren't consulted by the crosswalks. recommended

Parents to meet Bishop Reding

A delegation of parents of pupils at St. Joseph's School will meet with Bishop Paul Reding, Hamilton Diocese, this Saturday. Head of the parents' association which is battling to have a new school built here Vince Whelan announced the meeting with Bishop Reding this week. Parents feel they should take their case for a new school to Bishop Reding because he is a man with "considerable yet when he, Halton-Burlington MPF Julian Reed and a delegation from Halton Separate School Board will meet with Ontario Education Minister Bette Stephenson.

He said the parents will appeal to Bishop Reding their case on the basis that Catholic education isn't being properly provided in Acton. The best possible Catholic education is an essential aspect of life in the local Catholic community.

Whelan also revealed there is no word

Ladies' Fair Board All set for Fair days

by Heather Rennle Committee conveners reported "all set" Acton Fair days, September 19, 20 and 21. The monthly meeting of the Ladies' Division of the Agricultural Society was held Thursday, September 4 at the home of Ruth Linham.

The hall traditionally will display the best of Acton and area's baking, gardening, sewing and crafts. Highlighting the hall exhibits, the Canada Packers' Quilt collection is a special attraction this year. A small display will provide information for those inspired to join the ranks of the exhibitor encourage participation as memthe Ladies' responsibilities in the hall, the ladies will again sponsor the popular Baby Show. Entries are exgrown steadily, boasting 97 competitors in 1979. Registrations for this year's show are already being taken at Toddlers to Teens.

The Ladies' Division's own prize-winning quilt be won by some fair-supporter. Throughout the summer the quilt has been on display at several area stores. Ticket sales at these stores and by members has been brisk. Tickets will also be available at a booth featuring the quilt until draw time fair Sunday afternoon.

The winners of the most points in each of the seven hall classes will be presented with special prizes provided by the lady directors. A prize of In addition to their silverware, donated by Sears, Acton, will be presented to the exhibitor accumulating the most points in the hall classes. pected to top the 100 Presentations will be

mark. The annual event made on stage Sunday BAHA'I FAITH UNITY OF GOD, RELIGION, MAN BAHA'IS OF HALTON HILLS Box 91, Georgetown 878-8138

 GARDEN MUMS SPECIAL SALE OF SOME

POTTED SHRUBS

Birchway Farm

One Mile North of Hwy. 7 on Halton Road No. 3 at Ballinafad 877-4915

OPEN SEVEN DAYS A WEEK

Fully Equipped

Standard Features Include: Front wheel drive, 8 speed transmission, radial tires, electrically powered sunroof, tinted glass, rear window defroster, fully reclining bucket seets, AM/FM stereo, quertz digital clock and much much more!

877-5286

signs on Acton Boulevard in conjunction with an engineering dealing with speeding on Churchill North. The report called for crosswalks on Churchill too, in > reduction. Magwood said he was surprised the schools weren't consulted about the crosswalks since the schools work closely with Halton Region Police Officer Safety Swaminathan.

addition to a speed limit

The principal felt he couldn't comment much on the new Churchill North crosswalks since few of his students would use them He observed pupils from homes on Churchill cross in front of their homes and walk onto the school grounds. Magwood said he'd like to see the crosswalk situation straightened out because he wants to set up two or three school safety patrols. He said he wouldn't set up a patrol on Churchill because high school traffic would be too hard to handle and a hig responsibility for a grade five pupil. He felt crosswalks needed on Churchill. Councillors Terry Grubbe and Ross Knechtel said they will take up the crosswalk question with engineer Robert Austin and hope he will come up and meet with the principals.

AN EVENING WITH IRVING LAYTON

At Sheridan's Oakville Campus Thursday, September 25; 7:00 p.m.

The public is cordially invited to spend an evening with Canada's renowned. and controversial man of letters, Irving Layton.

While this is the first in a series of twelve lectures by Mr. Layton on the theme "Man, His Life and Loves in the 20th Century", there is no charge for this introductory evening.

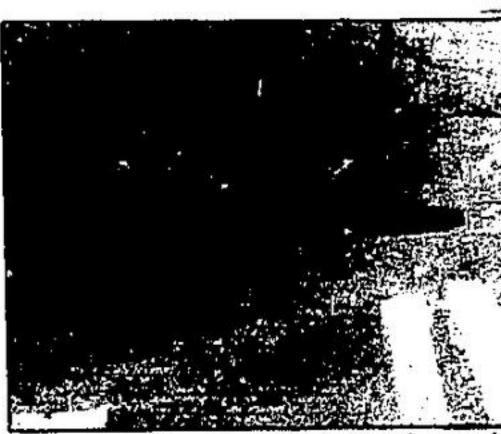

So come and enjoy an informal session of readings and discussion with Canada's best-known poet, and author of over forty books. Refreshments. Room B125.

Sheridan College Community Services

409 Meadowvale Rd., Waterloo

Frontier Florist & Gift Shop

> Highway No. 7 West of (519) 822-2361

Floral Designs — Weddings — Funerals

Macrame Hangers

Needle Work Kits

FREE DELIVERY TO HOSPITALS. NURSING AND FUNERAL HOMES IN THE ACTON, ROCKWOOD & QUELPHAREA on your first meeting and registration fee.

to try our formous Fund Plan And Irade her complements. Alway a kind word And lets of helpful advice. in their clid eating hobits for new ones And most s care of the recovers why They come because its so much enser to live weight when you're not the opinitial chars has helped more Every week this construction over members, money soving offer. One meeting is

MEETINGS IN YOUR AREA:

St. Alben's Parteh Hall 60 Guelph Street

Thurs. 7:00 p.m. FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CALL: 826-9204

A crosswalk that ends in a ditch isn't much use and should be moved Doug Magwood says.

R.R. 2, Guolph, Ont.

Weekend Specials

15% off

. All Oil Paintings

centile kine make survivate them only

WEIGHT WATCHERS GEORGETOWN ACTON

St. Goorge's Angican 130 Martin Street

Weight Watchers is a registered insdemark of Weight Watchers Int | Manhesset, N.Y. Weight Watchers International 1980

BIA wants parking-

Acton Business Improvement Area is looking at using the Dominion Hotel property on Main Street North for downtown parking. Minutes of the August BIA board of management meeting reveal the owner of the hotel site is being contacted and the merchants will offer to pay for gravel and grading of the site for parking

Skin Care Classes

A healthy complexion does not have to be a luxury or a time-consuming procedure.

"Concept Now" . . . pH correct with Aloe Vera, Allantoin, Comfrey, Kelp, Vitamins A, B, C, D & E & Natural collagen protein . . . is utilizing the best of laboratory research to deal with every conceivable skin problem. Since our introduction to the area, Concept Now has allowed so many women a healthy AND attractive appearance at a minimal Allow me to meet with you at your convenience. Depending on your needs, I will share with you my expertise and extensive training as a Beauty and Skin Care Consultant for today's most creative skin care collection - "Concept Now."

Phone (519) 856-9011 and I will be delighted to schedule a private consultation with you. Group classes also available.

> DOT NIXEY Cosmetologist

CONCEPT NOW COSMETICS CAREER OPPORTUNITIES AVAILABLE

GUELPH AIR SERVICES is hosting a

"LET'S TALK FLYING NIGHT"

Thursday, Sept. 18th at 7:45 pm Come out to the Guelph Airpark and learn with no obligation whatsoever how to obtain your

PRIVATE PILOT LICENCE

Complimentary Refreshments After

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION PHONE Guelph Air Services

824-2660

1 MILE EAST OF GUELPH ON THE NO. 7 HWY.

FILIDY ALL THE DISPLAYS . ENTERTAINMENT . ETHNIC FOODS AND REFRESHMENTS

THE PAVILIONS PARTICIPATING ARE:

. Canada ween housed being

Armenian

East Indian

. Dutch

Buy Your Passport

TODAY!

YOU COULD WIN A

FREE TRIP!

TO FLORIDA FOR TWO

ALL THE MANY CRAFT EXHIBITS THE FUN AND DANCING

German

· Irinh

· Italian

* Jamaican

 Latvian · Philippine

· Scottish • Ukrainian

Wetah

PASSPORT CHARGE: *2.50 (CHILDREN UNDER 14 YEARS OF AGE FREE)

· Harris Stationary · Town Hall and participating ethnic groups

If Accompanied by Adult PASSPORT ADMITS YOU TO ALL 14 PAVILIONS Programs will be malled out. Please be sure to bring them.

PAVILIONS OPEN AT 10 A.M. (CLOSING TIMES VARY) For Further Information Call (416) 878-7211 Ext. 48 OR CONTACT The Canadian Chempion, Box 751, 191 Main St., Milton, Ont. LST 1N7

