

Richard Stanley entered an unco-operative Alexandria in the swine show.

I'll scratch your back if you scratch mine. This is a heck of a way to spend a fall fair being prettied up for an Aberdeen Angus bull class.

Fall Fair '80

Winner of the 4H heifer class was Gerry Clark of Georgetown. Beef classes were up in entries this year.

Glenn Johnston of Stouffville judges Rex rabbits.

A bonnie brow bonnet for a wee sheep - fair sheep classes were full to brimming.

Three-year-old Karen Cadwell watches some poultry with the help of her dad Kelth.

Nino Braida presents the Junior Showman trophy to Jeff Stephens during Sundays Dairy Show.

Jarmila Kaprova of Mississauga has her dog well-trained. She won the best-trained pet division. Presenting her with a bag of dog food is Miss Fall Fair Lisa McGrath.

Bossy gets a bath before going on parade.

Best costumed pet (not to mention teddy bear) went to Andrew and Catherine Kellough. Miss Fall Fair Lisa McGrath congratulates the three... or four of them.

Angle the goat, was declared the largest pet. Her owner Lisa Walsma proudly displays the first place ribbon.

Marcia Villafranca, centre, presents Coogle, the smallest cat in the pet show Sunday. Pet show judges Ed Wood, right, and Sal Smith had a difficult time choosing winners in all the categories.

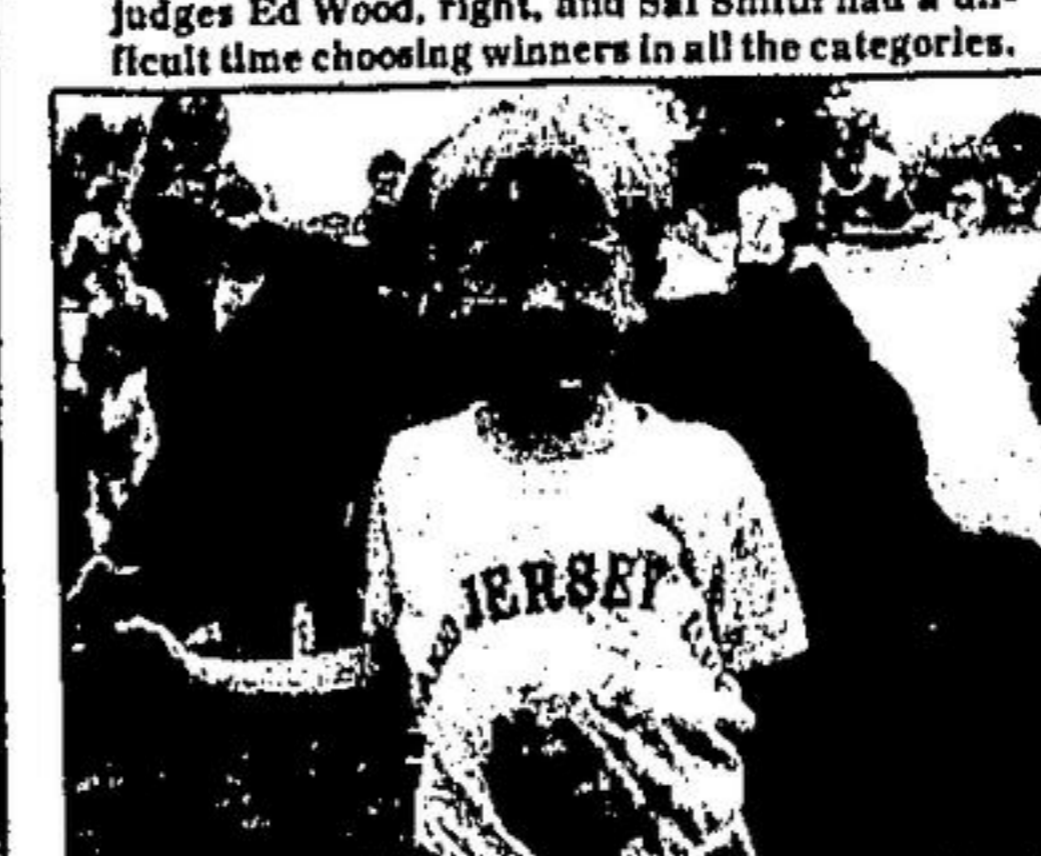

Short-horned bulls were well represented by the entry from Milton's Reford Gardhouse.

Seven-year-old Robin Burke and her younger brother Wesley, 3, of Acton admire some award winning rabbits during the rabbit show.

Winning flock of sheep went to Strathearn Farms of Rockwood with their Oxford herd. Assisting with the showing is Russ Dow, Mary Jackson, John Dow and Dorothy Kitchen.

Youngsters junior showman in the dairy show, Jeff Sales, 6, shows his Jersey calf.

Lisa Georganes, left and Tarra Waller both of Acton and friends (l. to r.) Toby, Misty and Midnight. All of them were entrants in the pet show.