

That's entertainment

The Amazing Arlisses thrilled the Friday night crowd with unicycle and juggling tricks.

Leanne McEwen and Mark Smith helped out magician Captain Bill James Friday night.

Doreen Hayes, Canada's answer to Dolly Parton, got a bit of help Friday night from Acton's own Bert Davidson in a soft shoe number.

The Beauty Spots entertained Friday night with song and dance routines.

Paul Brothers and Shirley, a singing comedy duo, was a big hit.

Actario trip draw Saturday

Regional Councillor Ed Wood, who has turned over the front of his downtown store to Actario, will make the first trip draw this Saturday morning.

The big trip is to the Bahamas and there will also be the regular weekly draw for $350 cash.

In addition there will be five bonus merchants packets valued at about $25 each up for grabs if winning ticket holders are downtown for the draw at 11:30 a.m.

Last week's $350 winner was Monica McKay, 86 Kingham Road.

Joe Schouten, R.R. 3, Milton, and Lynda Bowen, 143 Wynford Place, both won 10 Rotary Beef Draw tickets.

One merchant bonus prize pouch went to Janet Fleming, 42 Cobblehill Road, and Mrs. D. Bailey, 90 Kingham Road also won a bonus pouch.

Inflation . . .

(Continued from page 8) Conservative government's proposal while 36.8 per cent oppose it. Jelinek's riding is staunchly against the Soviet Union invasion of Afghanistan. A whopping 71.2 per cent of respondents want all economic, sporting and artistic ties with the Russians broken until their troops withdraw from the small Asian nation.

If it was up to the people living in this riding Canada would have capital punishment. Just 15.6 per cent weren't in favor of re-instating capital punishment for first degree pre-meditated murder.

Constituents were also asked to choose which issues concerned them most. The largest number, 47.1 per cent, named inflation. Energy was the number two concern with 14.3 per cent of those answering the poll, national unity came third with 12.1 per cent. Nine per cent were worried about employment, 8.1 per cent law and order, interest rates 1.2 per cent and bilingualism 0.2 per cent. Government spending, environmental protection, armed services and immigration were also mentioned as concerns.

Plowing Match Winner

Allan Cunningham of Limehouse was a big winner at the recent Halton Plowing Match.

He won the Stan May Memorial Trophy for being the contestant with the highest combined score at both Halton Plowing matches. As well, Cunningham won class 2B and the International Harvester Company special cash prize for the best plowed land in the utility class using a mounted plow.

Keith McKenzie of Acton took second place in class 11 at the match.
