

67th Acton Fall Fair

Ron McKnight sells a Rotary Beef Draw Ucket. William Clark, R.R. 3, Acton won the steer.

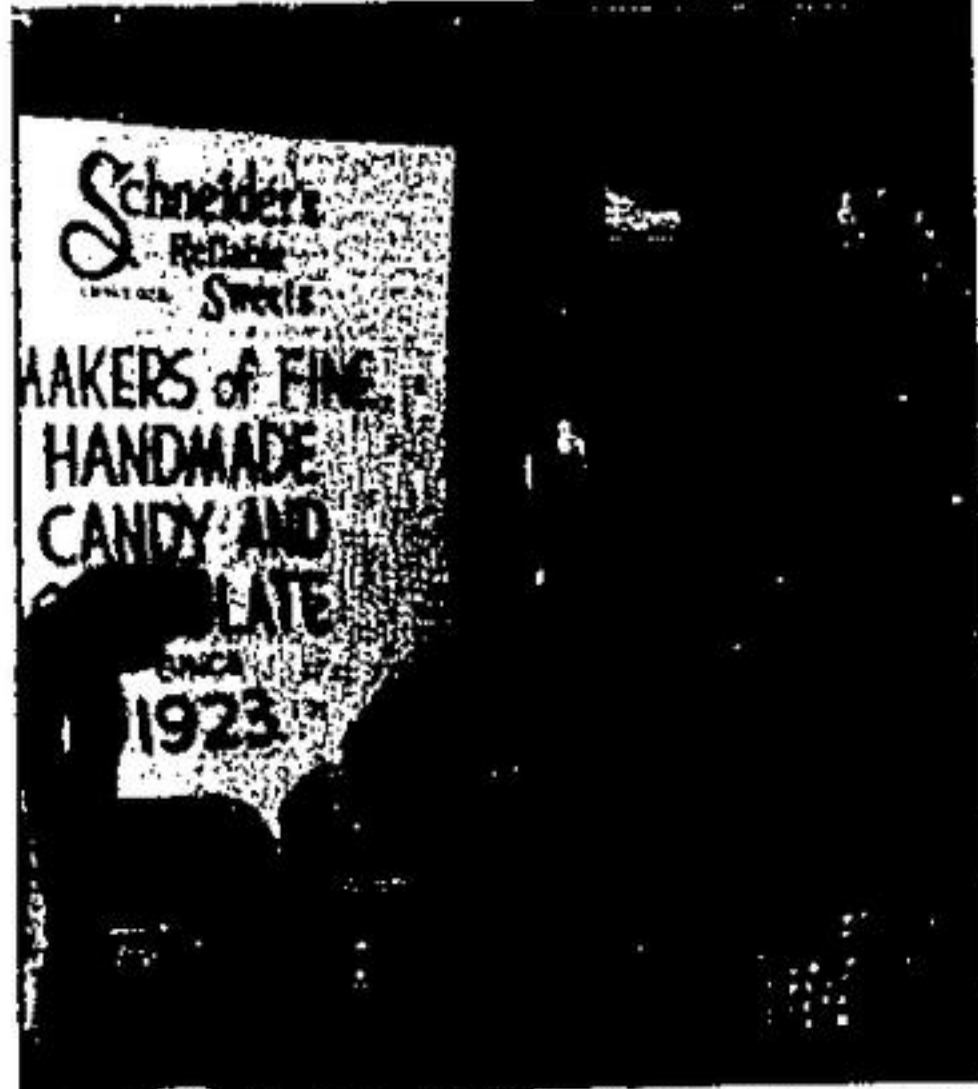

President of the ladies' division Heather Rennie and Lois Leech announce the winner of the quilt draw, held by Elva Pearson, who helped make it. Dorrit Jorgenson of Mississauga won the draw, a beautiful quilt.

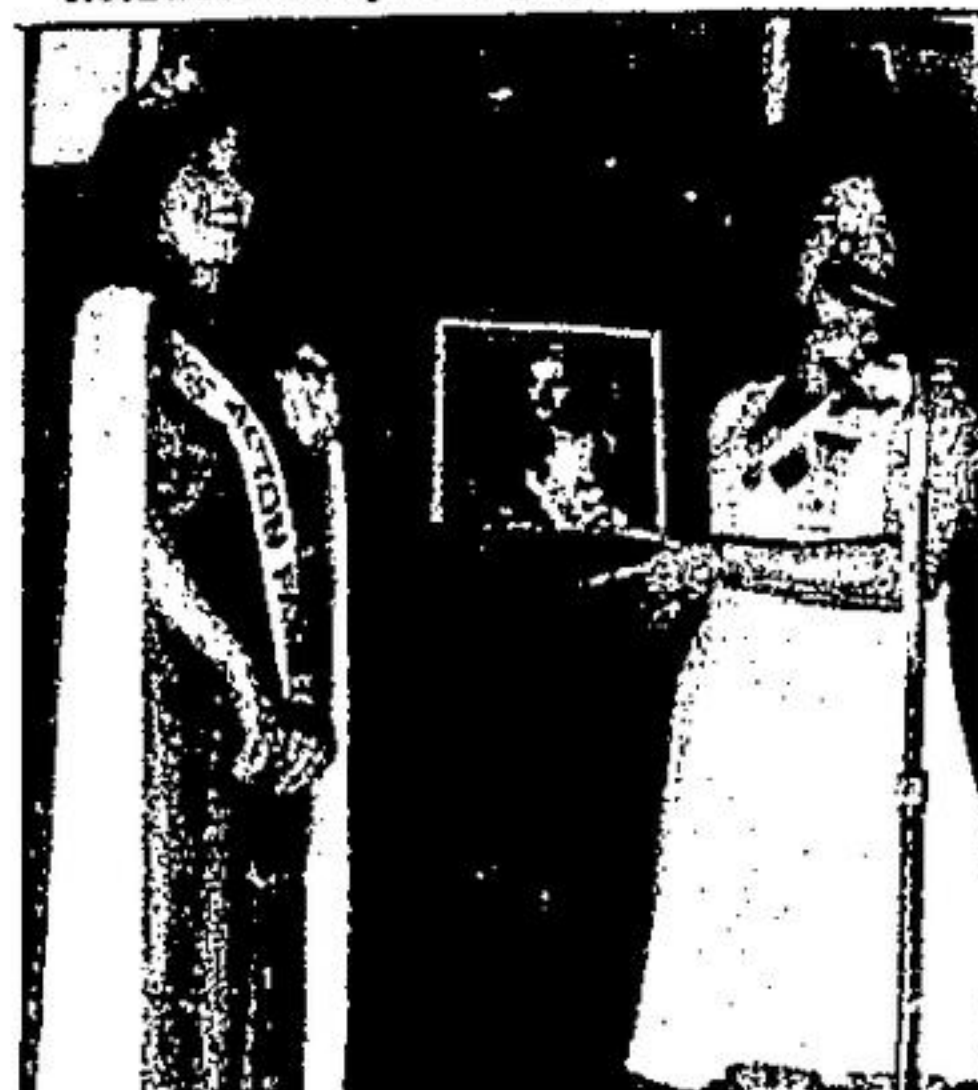

Being winner of the boy's four to six mos. age group didn't impress Robert Davison. He slept through all the applause. Mom Brenda accepted the ribbon and prizes.

Halton Dalry Princess Catherine Rich was at Friday's show.

Paul Rutan of Schneiders Reliable Sweets in Rockwood sets up his display.

Golden Agers

Mrs. Near donates quilt

Acton Golden Age Club held their evening meeting last Wednesday at Luxton Hall, opening with O Canada and the Theme song. Edna Besley was at the piano. Plans for the float for Acton Fall Fair on the following Saturday were finalized.
The nominating committee for the new executive will be Jean Precious, Gladys Davidson, and Greta Perkins. Mrs. Emma Near graciously donated a lovely quilt for which we are to sell tickets on the draw to be made at our bake sale on Friday, May 1, 1981.

Jean Precious, Lillian Wagner and Gladys Davidson volunteered to serve lunch at the Zone 13 executive meeting on Tuesday September 30 at 2 p.m.
The Christmas Party dinner was discussed and suggestions are to be brought to the next meeting.

Murder trial

The man accused of murdering former Acton OPP officer Duncan McAleese in January will go on trial January 12, 1981, in Newmarket.
McAleese was gunned down outside a sandwich shop in Delhi while working on a drug case.

Robert Mitchell, 32, waived his right to a preliminary hearing and agreed to a trial by judge.
McAleese was a mem-

Santa coming

Acton's Santa Claus parade will be the afternoon of Saturday, November 22.
Monday night Halton Hills council gave approval for the parade.

Oops

There were two errors in last week's Legion Happenings column in the Free Press.
Octoberfest will be held October 18, not the 8, and this Saturday, September 27, all past and present members of the Chorallers as well as men interested in joining the singing group are invited to attend a social evening at the Legion. The column said singles not singers are welcome.
Again we were given the wrong name as winner of the Rotary Club early bird beef draw by a Rotary source. First reported Colin and then Cathy Williams, of Elizabeth Drive, won an Acton ticket in the early bird draw. It was Cheryl Williams who won. Our thanks to Mrs. Williams for bringing the error to our attention.
The Free Press apologizes for the errors.
