Teen's death saddens village

by Mrs. G. MacDougall
 President Anna Wilson presided over the meeting of the Friendly Seniors on Wednesday. There were 15 members in attendance. Mrs. Mary Norrish and Miss Katherine McPhedran gave an interesting and enlightening report of their recent trip to Northern Canada, Yukon and Alaska.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry Cole were guests at the Ralph Nellis-Wendy Bowen wedding last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Manse Lowrie spent Sunday with Joan's mother and sister in Toronto.

The United and Presbyterian churches observed World Wide Communion on Sunday. A yellow, blue and white felt banner depicting the Trinity was hung in the vestibule—one that some of the ladies made during the summer months.

The Community Club held a social after noon in the hall on Sunday afternoon and snapshots of the 50th anniversary of the village were passed around. Irene Cole prepared a tasty buffet lunch and coffee.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Link attended the wedding reception of Agnes' nephew held at Mount Pleasant on Sunday.

Some very bold thieves broke into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Steven Lowrie on Friday night and stole their colored T.V.; stereo; a calculator and chain saw. This is a big loss to a young couple just married for a year.

Deep and sincere sympathy of the community is with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Webb in the sad and tragic loss of their youngest daughter, Lisa, aged 15 years, who was struck by a car on Saturday evening. Condolences also to Lisa's sister, Mrs. Janet MacDonald and her family. Miss Kathy van Rhijn who was walking with Lisa escaped uninjured.

Church invites neighbors

Churchill Community Church invites their friends and neighbours to attend a special slide presentation of Oberamagau on Saturday evening October 18th at 7:30.

Jim Taylor, Managing Editor of the United Church Observer, attended the Passion Play at Oberamagau this summer, and also in 1970, at the same time travelling extensively throughout Europe, and has a well-rounded and very interesting program of slides.

Members of Churchill C.C.W. enjoyed a singsong and visit with the residents of Mapleview Lodge on Monday afternoon.

Friends are sorry to hear that Bill Thompson, Third Line, has been in hospital for a couple of weeks undergoing surgery. We wish him a speedy recovery.

The young people of the church will assemble at Churchill Saturday at 1 p.m. to adorn the sanctuary for Thanksgiving. Anyone who wishes to bring fruits of garden and field may do so at that time.

Please don't forget the Paper Drive November 17th, 18th and 19th!

World Communion

by Mrs. R. McLean
 Tuesday, Oct. 21. Arkell with Rev. W. Leeman, anniversary is Oct. 26, Arthur as guest speaker.

Ebenezer observed World Communion Sunday.

Mr. Finley spoke on "Guests of God." In Jesus' time, the banquet invitation was given days ahead of time. The guests could let the host know whether or not they were coming. On the day of the banquet, runners were sent out to say, "Come now." It was the highest discourtesy, to say you couldn't come, after having accepted. They all had good excuses.

There is still a tendency to let business interfere with God's plan. Five yoke of oxen would be a wonderful possession.

You can take the best there is and that becomes a barrier, the man who was just married. There is nothing more beautiful than family life. Those stay best together who live with God.

"Compel them to come in" has been an excuse for Inquisition and torture. You have to convince the blind, crippled and poor that it is a genuine invitation.

Everything that has happened is a burden upon you. You bring it to the table and offer it. The table is for all. How great it will be to sit down to the banquet in heaven.

Ebenezer anniversary is Sunday, Oct. 19. The speaker is the Rev. Gordon Timbers of Milton Manor. The annual beef dinner is
