

Pupils at St. Joseph's School raised $28.37 during Friday's carnival for Muscular Dystrophy. The carnival, partly organized by parent Cheryl Wedemire, had been postponed twice because of rain. The money goes with $22.55 the school raised from a spring carnival to the Muscular Dystrophy fund. Keri Papillon won the housekeeping set from Home Hardware while Katy O'Meara won an umbrella from Toddiers to Teens. In the picture Joseph Willmott winds up for one of the toss events in the carnival.
