

Fred Meadows
Obituary

Fred Meadows

Rockwood store proprietor of 50 years, Fred J. Meadows died suddenly at his home, 219 Alma Street, October 19, 1980 in his 75th year.

Born in Rockwood, May 21, 1906, the son of James and Martha Meadows, Mr. Meadows leaves to mourn wife Laura and a large family of nephews and nieces. He was predeceased by brothers Ozzie, Howard, Aleck, Emmerson, Cliff, Percy and sisters Carrie, Harriet and Gladys. Ozzie Meadows predeceased his brother by only a month.

A graduate of Rockwood Public School, Mr. Meadows ran his variety store and gas station on the corner of Pasmore and Guelph Streets since 1930. The store and snack bar served as a meeting place for many residents who enjoyed a game of cards and a smile from the well-liked man.

He was known as an avid sportsman, enjoying hunting and fishing. Village resident Don Hiltz, former Deputy Game Warden, remembers being assisted in game laws by Mr. Meadows. He was a member of the Rockwood Fish and Game Club and was instrumental in promoting pheasants and stocking Eramosa streams.

Mr. Meadows will always be remembered for his guitar playing at informal social gatherings and the chocolate bars he used to dole out on Halloween—in an era when penny candy was the best a youngster could hope for.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, October 22 at Shoemaker Funeral Home, Acton. Rev. Carrie Doehring will officiate. Interment will take place in Rockwood Cemetery. Pallbearers will be Harvard Klein of Ariss, Pat Schmidt of Guelph, Edward Teskey of Acton, Edward Moyer of Preston-Cambridge, Herb Saunders and Tom Rockola of Rockwood.

Artist . . .

"But don't tell that, it's too embarrassing."

Or there was the time in Newfoundland . . . "I took my dog Myka. She likes to smile (here Avril bares her teeth), and she's the biggest, friendliness dog you'll ever meet."

"But these great, big Newfoundland men were all afraid of her. I thought that was pretty funny."

Avril said she knew nothing of Newfoundland before she went. "I just read an ad in a magazine about the Summer Art in the communities program and that 'Isn't that nice', applied and went."

"I loved it. I did my strongest series of work there. But they have strange names for things. Instead of a tea towel, they call it a cup towel."

On top of all that she finds time to raise rabbits and cross country ski, hike and of course travel. She also has two dogs and a husband.

She keeps busy. But at her own pace.

"I like to be able to stop and take walks while I am working. I enjoy teaching part time but I wouldn't want to be stuck in a factory or something."

"I'd rather be doing something I really enjoy even if it doesn't bring in a lot of money."

Although Avril is hoping for a few sales as a result of the showing, she says she considers her work a "labor of love". "I'll probably be poor for the rest of my life, but at least I'll be happy."

Avril Bull's prints and watercolors are on show at the Gallery Ingenu, 577 Mount Pleasant Road, Toronto until Nov. 1.
