

Ed's clip Elora 11-2

A hat trick by Mark Duval helped Ed's In-N-Out midgets to a 6-6 sister kisser with Hespeler Sunday at the Community Centre.

Duval scored the first three goals in the chippy game, two of them unassisted.

Rob Vermeulen, Roy Spear and Tim Evans netted the other Acton markers. Evan's goal led the game, giving Ed's the single point.

Spear, Evans, Vermeulen, Duval, and Gord McArthur picked up the assists.

Rick Dwyer started out in the nets for Ed's, but was injured midway through the game.

Tim Baker replaced him, but he was pulled for the extra attacker in the final seconds.

Earlier in the week, Ed's devastated Elora in a 11-2 well-played match for the In-N-Outs. The scoring plays were spread out over the lineup. Vermeulen opened the scoring. Dell Mohammed potted two, Tim Ferguson scored the third goal, Duval connected on the fifth, Evans and Brian Dennis picked up two goals each. The other goals came from McArthur and Duval.

Assists went to Demone, Duval, Ferguson, Spear, Mohammed, Barry McNabb, Rick Greenly, Gary White and Gino Fronteddu.

Paul Morrison played between the pipes, stopping several Elora powerplay efforts.

Ed's started out the season on a low note, losing to Woolwich (Elmira) 6-4 at the Community Centre Sunday, Oct. 19.

Ed's took the lead in the game with two goals by McArthur and McNabb. Woolwich tied it up however.

McArthur put Acton in the lead again on a goal assisted by Duval and Spear. Vermeulen then made it 4-2.

Then Woolwich struck back, connecting on four unanswered goals.

Baker was in the goal for the loss, facing 14 Woolwich power plays. Marshall had praise for Demone and McArthur, saying they played strong games.

Acton aids went to Spear, McArthur, and Duval.

Ed's home games are played Sunday afternoons at 12:30. The team: Paul Morrison, Tim Baker, Rick Dwyer (goal), Tim Evans, Roy Spear, Mark Duval, Rob Vermeulen, Dell Mohammed, Gary White, Paul Cargill, Gord McArthur, Tim Ferguson, Rick Greenly, Barry McNabb, Rick Dodds, Wayne McMillan, Paul Vermeulen, Gino Fronteddu, Brian Demone. Coach: Steve Marshall, assistant coach Bob Jarret.

Close, but no goal for Acton minor peewees Wednesday in their 6-2 loss to Woolwich. The Beardmore peewees failed to capitalize on several scoring opportunities in the second, then stopped skating in the third period, handing the game to Woolwich.

Laing grabs shutout

Goaltending has been the key to Laing Construction major atoms last three victories. With the duo of Scott Williams and David Hinz in the nets, Laing has shut out Kitchener North Stars 4-0 Sunday in Kitchener, nipped Hespeler 6-2 Saturday at the Community Centre and blasted New Hamburg 9-1 in New Hamburg Thursday.

John Van Dam led the atoms in Sunday's match, netting two markers. Other goals came from Frank Katsilieras and Craig Cadenhead.

Cadenhead, Greg Leatherland, Carl Yaroschak and Jason Henderson all earned aids.

Van Dam also led the way in Saturday's game, copping a hat trick. He scored the first goal in the opening period, followed by markers from Troy Foster and Yaroschak before connecting on his second. Hespeler scored one goal in the first period to make it 1-1.

Van Dam counted his third goal in the middle frame, and Yaroschak made it 6-2 in the third.

The defence duo of Lee Yaroschak and Rob Murray, who both picked up assists, played a strong game. Other aids went to Leatherland, Henderson and Cadenhead.

Moms upset

Acton minor atom Moms battled to a 3-3 tie Saturday in New Hamburg after being thumped by Woolwich 6-0 at the Community Centre Wednesday night.

Rene Vankesteren opened the scoring on an unassisted effort at 3:25 of the first period. But New Hamburg tied it up a few seconds later. Jeff McRae sent the Moms into the second period with a one goal lead. Mikeal Brouwer made it 3-1 in the second period, with Tibbits assisting before New Hamburg fought back with two goals of their own.

The Moms forgot about position hockey when they suffered the 6-0 shutout at the sticks of Woolwich Wednesday.

Firefighter bantams in draw

Acton Firefighter major bantams fought to a 1-1 tie Sunday in New Hamburg, after dousing Woolwich (Elmira) 6-4 at the Community Centre last Tuesday night.

In Sunday's game, Chris Hicks scored the Acton marker at 4:26 of the second frame, giving them the lead. Paul Cargill earned an aid.

But New Hamburg tied it up at 8:45.

The Firefighters may have been able to win the match but it ended after 45 minutes of play due to

5:26 and eight minutes. Lorenzo Civiero aided on the second marker.

Woolwich scored two goals in the second frame but Youmans countered with his second marker at 9:01. Civiero earned the bracket.

Woolwich scored the only goal of the final stanza at 8:43.

Acton played its best period-and-a-half of the season in the game. Woolwich came on strong in the third, but Acton goalie Tim McKendry retained the Firefighters lead.

Van Dam leads Rotary bants

The Rotary Club minor bantams picked up their first victory thanks to Tony Van Dam's two goals.

They shut out New Hamburg 2-0.

Van Dam scored both Acton markers, the first one an unassisted goal at 7:34 of the second period, the other at the six minute mark of the third frame, with Andrew Ferguson aiding.

Steve Taillefer spent the first two periods in the net, building up a shutout, while David Vander Eyken closed the doors to New Hamburg in the third.

The win came on the heels of an exhibition match, last Tuesday, October 21 when the Rotary Club tied Galt 3-3.

Galt and Acton traded goals in the game, with Terry Danagher potting the tying marker for Rotary Club at 7:04 in the final period.

Galt opened the scoring 54 seconds into the middle stanza, Brian Gibson connected on an unassisted effort.

Danagher tied it up seven minutes later, also on an unassisted effort. David Nutt for Galt and Van Dam for Acton traded another two goals before the end of the second frame, making it 2-2.

Shawn Walsh put Galt in the lead in the third period, scoring at 8:35, setting up Danagher's tying efforts.

Greg James and Ted Morrisette earned aids
