Daughters of Knox

Debate women in Ministry

The regular meeting of the Daughters of Knox was held on Oct. 6 in the Mary Ellen Anderson room of the Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Tom Watson presided in the absence of the president Mrs. E.A. Hansen.

Mrs. Clifford Ashley introduced Ian Findlay, a grade eleven student at Acton District High School. Ian gave a most interesting account of Mennonite life as he found it, from his experience of staying for two days with a Mennonite family this summer. He also described the activities of a typical day on the farm of a Mennonite. He participated in the enjoyment of many delicious food items, not the least of which, was Shoo Fly Pie. Ian obtained the recipe for this and had copies made to distribute to the members of the Daughters of Knox.

Mrs. Brian Moore thanked Ian for his very informative account.

Mrs. Ashley and her group then conducted the Worship portion which consisted of the Thanks-giving Service from the Glad Tidings magazine. Annetta Van Fleet gave the opening prayer. The psalm was read by Avril Matheson.

Hymn "For the Beauty of the Earth" was sung. The Message was read by Mrs. Ashley. The offering was received and of-fertery prayer given by Mrs. Harold Swallow. The hymn "All People that On Earth Do Dwell" was sung, and the closing prayer given by Betty Ashley.

For a musical number, the Conference hymn "If I Trust Him" was sung by all.

Rene Watson then conducted the business meeting. She welcomed the several guests.

Roll call was answered by the bringing of further craft items for the Bazaar on Oct. 25.

The previously postponed debate on the subject of—Women in the Ministry— will be held during our Nov. 3 meeting. Everyone is urged to bring an in-terested guest so as to ensure a large attendance. The panel will be divided evenly between women and men.

The meeting closed with the Mizpah Benediction.

Ballinafad

Mission fund helps in own backyard

by Winifred Smith

Mrs. Leo Jamieson and Mrs. Slestoraitis were delegates to the area convention held at Guelph last Thursday and Friday. Five other members from the Ballinafad W.I. also attended the convention.

Tables were turned on Sunday when the young folk went upstairs for Sunday School classes. The church service was held during the week in order that a film-strip could be shown. It was Mission Sunday and the film was showing where our gifts to the mission and service fund reach both locally and nearby in the big city. It was announced that the Fred Victor Mission was in need of small men's clothing. If you have any please contact Mrs. Leo Jamieson for the necessary information.

Mr. and Mrs. Colwell from Ancaster spent the weekend with the Jamiesons.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Given have returned home from a hunting trip in the Elk Lake district. One of this party got a moose. They came back on Thursday of last week just in time to celebrate their 45th wedding anniversary on Sat., (October 25). To mark the occasion the couple went out to dinner. Later that evening their family gathered at the home with a beautifully decorated anniversary cake, gifts and everything that goes with this special event. It was a very happy occasion for all concerned. We extend congratulations to this popular couple and hope they celebrate many more.

Sorry to hear Mike Burton had to return to hospital. He is at present in the Georgetown and District Hospital.

Barbara Ann Turkosz and Raymond Douglas Nuttal were married in a double-ring ceremony this past summer. The bride wore an heirloom sunburst brooch for the occasion.

"Something old" is family brooch

Wearing her grandmother's heirloom sunburst brooch, for "something old", Barbara Ann Turkosz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Turkosz and Raymond Douglas Nuttal, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Nuttal of Hillsburgh, were married in a double-ring ceremony at St. Alban's Church in Acton, July 19.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of old-fashioned blouson design, with a wide cummerbund and long, full sleeves, featuring cream silk polyester and French scalloped lace at the round neckline and wrists. The dress was fastened with 22 pearl buttons. She carried a bouquet of silk pink, blue and mauve daisies, roses, dahlias and baby's breath.

Marie Archibald was matron on honor, with Kathy Vandermeer, Marie Archibald, Eva Williams and Marion Hunter.

Rose Nuttal, sister of the groom as bridesmaid, was the bride's bridesmaid. They wore French blue sheaths with chiffon overlays and natural straw hats, carrying bouquets the same as the bride's. All gowns were made by Marg Hammond of Acton.

Steve Archibald was best man with Brian Nuttal, the groom's brother and Roy Vandermeer, his brother-in-law serving as ushers. Guests from Port Elgin, Bowmanville, Brampton, Georgetown, Erin, Guelph and Toronto were received at the Rockwood Community Centre. Special guests were the bride's grandparents and godparents. The couple honeymooned in St. Petersburg, Florida for one week, then returned to their home in Acton.

Showers were given by Heidi Ashley, Shelly Wilson, Kathy Vandermeer, Marie Archibald, Eva Williams and Marion Hunter.
