

VanKesteren goals spark atom Moms

The minor atom Moms collected two victories in a row last week after a short winless streak. They doubled the Bruins 2-4 Friday in Grand River and nipped Guelph 5-4 Wednesday at the Community Centre.

Their 5-4 win over Guelph snapped a two game losing streak, but it didn't look that way in the beginning.

Guelph had jumped to a three-goal lead in the first and second periods. But the Moms rallied with three goals of their own to tie the game. Mike Brouwen scored the first Acton goal followed by markers from Michael Williams and Steve Robertson.

Guelph went ahead by one goal in the third period, but Rene VanKesteren brought the crowd to its feet with his equal-

Moms were not satisfied with the tie. They kept pressing until the 6:57 mark of the third, when they capitalized on a scoring play. VanKesteren netted his second goal to give the Moms the win.

The game was called with 2:04 left to play.

Acton aids went to Brouwen, Ian Johnston, Sean Sears and Williams. Coach Bob Faseruk moved Tim Tibbitts to left wing to add some spark to the Moms scoring drive. It worked Friday, as the Moms defeated the Bruins 4-2.

Moms scored three unanswered goals in the before allowing the Bruins to even get on the scoreboard.

Tibbitts opened the scoring, followed by markers from Brouwer and Johnston.

Tibbitts' goal was unanswered, but Williams, Johnston, Sears and Robertson aided on the other two markers.

VanKesteren netted the other Acton goal on an unassisted effort in the second frame.

The Moms now have three wins, two losses and a tie under their suspenders.

Danagher's second goal a minute later.

Guelph's Mike Billing and Acton's Porte traded goals, keeping the game tied at 5-5. Then Scott Gilmer connected on the winning goal at 12:30. Once again Acton couldn't come up with the equalizer.

Thomas, Ferguson, Danagher, and Brad O'Neil earned assists.

Colin Brackenridge, goalie for the minor atom Moms makes the stop during Wednesday night's defeat of Guelph. Michael Williams (5) makes sure Guelph player Paul Hayes (8) can't get to the puck.

Rotary Club bants comeback falls short

A third period rally by the Rotary Club minor bantams fell short Sunday as Brantford nipped them 5-4 in Brantford.

Brantford jumped into a seemingly insurmountable 5-0 lead 27 seconds into the final frame. They capitalized on the powerplay for two of those five goals.

But Rotary Club battled back with Terry Danagher connecting at 3:15, followed by a goal by Tony Van Dam at 5:33. Danagher collected his second goal at 7:17, then Greg James put Acton within one of tying the game on his powerplay goal at 7:28.

Micheal Fronteddu and Andrew Ferguson each pocketed a pair of assists with singles going to Chris Stewart and Van Dam.

Earlier in the week, Guelph topped Rotary Club 6-5 in a game played Tuesday Nov. 4 at the Community Centre.

Guelph whittled a way a 3-1 lead held by the locals late in the second period and came on strong to score the winning goal with less than two minutes remaining in the game.

Acton and Guelph traded a pair of goals in the first period. David Thomas netted the Rotary Club marker at 3:20 unassisted while Darrel McDonald was the Guelph marksman.

Goals by Fronteddu and Danagher and unassisted effort gave Rotary Club the lead in the second frame, but Guelph came back to tie it up. Guelph took the lead for the first time in the game at 3:34 of the final stanza but Acton quickly tied it up with two goals.

On lanes one and two the Giraffes ran away with three points, leaving the Chimps empty-handed. On three and four the Elephants stamped all over the Kangaroos, taking two out of three points.

On lanes five and six the Alligators swam away three points, leaving the Tigers on shore with nothing.

On lanes one and two the Parrots couldn't get off the ground as the Swans took all three points. On three and four the Partridges flew away from the Owls, taking both games and totals.

On lanes five and six the Peacocks couldn't get it going as the Hawks flew away with all the points.

On lanes three and four the Zebras were grounded as the Eagles took both games and totals.

Firefighter bants cooled 5-1

Kitchener cooled off Firefighter major bantams, dumping them 5-1 Saturday, in Kitchener.

The Firefighters were outshouted and outscored, despite many close scoring opportunities for the bants. They just couldn't capitalize.

Kitchener had already gained a three goal lead, scoring 29 seconds into the first period, again 15 seconds later and at 2:01.

David Milne finally put Acton on the scoreboard at 5:30 of the third, assisted by Rick Dodds. Kitchener scored their two other goals at 6:29 and 11:30.

Earlier in the week on Tuesday, Nov. 4, the Firefighters came out on the short end of an 8-7 shootout with Waterloo.

Any defensive aspects of the game were missing, as Waterloo and Acton traded goals.

Randy Coverdale scored three goals in the game, with singles coming from Bill Morrison, Brad MacPherson, Paul Cargill and Richard Kilpatrick. MacPherson, Milne, Morrison, Dodds, Brad Youmans, David McKnight, Chris Hicks and Todd Laing earned the assists.

Defencemen Hayter and Katsilleras who both picked up assists, played strong games as did the line of Todd Lazenby, Troy Foster and Wayne MacEachern. Although they didn't connect on any goals, they had several good plays, but were thwarted by Guelph's goaltender.

Both Scott Williams and David Hinz excelled between the pipes for Laing, especially in the first period, while the score was still close.

Van Dam also picked up a couple of assists, along with Leatherland, Yaroshak and Lee Yaroshak. Singles went to Cadenhead, Evan Hayter, Jason Henderson and Frank Katsilleras.

Cadenhead aids Laings

Craig Cadenhead collected a hat trick as the Laing Construction major atoms enjoyed an 8-1 romp over Guelph Saturday at the Community Centre.

Cadenhead opened the scoring in the first period, followed by three more markers from John Van Dam, Carl Yaroshak and Greg Leatherland, to make it 4-1.

After a scoreless second period, Acton opened up with four more unanswered goals. Cadenhead scored his other two, along with Paul Campbell and Van Dam.

Several years ago, Derek Michael Sanderson, was the talk of the country as he broke into the National Hockey League but this past week he has been the talk of Georgetown. Everywhere you turn his name pops up along with the Raiders.

Last week the rumor leaked out that Georgetown Chrysler Raiders were seeking the services of the former NHL'er. Despite the fact the local club has not been in touch with Sanderson it blossomed all over the airwaves and daily newspapers.

Sanderson, (34) the NHL's Calder Trophy winner as 'Rookie of the Year' in 1968 with the Boston Bruins, has had some problems over the past few seasons and is in a transitional period trying to put his life back together.

Raider GM Dave Kentner was trying the soft sell approach to getting Sanderson to camp but since things have skyrocketed Kentner has had to try the direct route to Derek. "I have talked to Derek's father in Niagara Falls but have not talked directly to him (Derek)," said Kentner. "This whole thing has gotten out of hand."

At present Kentner's main concern is that he is not causing the star any embarrassment or jeopardizing his chances of getting him into a red and white uniform although he still believes it is a long shot.

"Saturday I was optimistic," commented the GM. "His mother said he would like to talk to me and wanted to call me back but Sunday morning when I called Niagara Falls again his father told me that he had flown to Boston on business." Although Sanderson's address is Chicago he has been spending time with his parents.

According to Kentner all has not been lost even if the Raiders fail in their bid for the star. "Even if we don't get Derek we may get two or three top line players just from the publicity.

Despite rumors heard to date, Derek Sanderson was not expected at the Raider practice last night, or in the future. Not unless it is a better kept secret than the fact that the Raiders tried to contact him about playing for them.
