Gates-Sullivan trade vows 73. LEGAL accented by

Lydin Jane Isabelle, daughter of Annie and Archie Gates of the Acton rural area and Timothy John Matthew, son of Margaret and John Sullivan of Elora exchanged marriage vows in an autumn wedding September 6 at St. Peter's Catholic Church in Oustic. The bride wore a gown of white Chantilly lace with a fitted bodice and long sleeves accented by a six-tiered crinoline skirt.

Lydia Jane Isabelle Gates and Timothy John Matthew Sullivan exchanged wedding vows in an autumn wedding. The couple are now living in Elora.

Swiss muslin was held in place by a Dutch style head dress, accented by baby's breath in her braided hair.

She also wore a tiny opal and gold necklace, a gift from the groom and carried a colonial bouquet of dark red parfait roses and white chrysanthemums Boston fern.

Cecilia Milton was maid of honor while April Anne Gates was flower girl. They were long fullskirted gowns with filted

Committee to

Bill Tom, Chairman for the North Halton Social Planning Council Steering Committee has announced a public meeting to inaugurate the North Halton Social Planning p.m. on Thursday at Hillcrest Church, Trafalgar Rd. and Five Sideroad.

The steering committee was formed following a public meeting in June 1980, which was called to establish whether there were presently common concerns then investigate methods by which these concerns and difficulties could best be met. It was established at the meeting that there were some common problems which most social service organizations were attempting to meet It was the conclusion of the group that these could best be resolved by formation of a single organization.
