Last minute goal

A last-minute goal by Cino Fronteddu gave Ed's In-N-Out midgets a 5-5 tie with Kitchener Thursday.

Rotary split pair

Rotary Club minor bantams split a pair of games last week, nipping Waterloo Tuesday 4-3 at the Community Centre, but losing to Galt by the same score Saturday.

Galt had taken a three-goal lead, but Rotary Club tied it on markers from Greg James and two from Terry Danagher.

Correction

In last week's issue of the Acton Free Press, a photograph was incorrectly identified. The photograph was actually of the Lions Club major peewees, who ripped Waterloo 6-5 at the Community Centre Nov. 1. Sorry for any inconvenience this may have caused.

goal came with only 24 seconds left in the first period.

He opened the second period with his other marker, Dell Mohammed, Roy Spear, and Paul Cargill earned assists.

Despite goals by Cargill and Barry McNabb in the second and third period, Kitchener had taken a one goal lead, setting up Fronteddu's heroics with 3.34 left in the game.

Rick Greenly, Mohammed, White, Cargill and McNabb earned assists. Sunday at home, Acton scored a 6-2 victory over Brampton.

Tom Van der Eyken, Andrew Ferguson and Danagher picked up assists.

Cager playoffs

The junior Redmen start their playoffs today (Wednesday) in the Halton East secondary school girls' basketball championships.

Playoffs, originally scheduled to begin next Monday, were pushed forward.

The juniors, who finished the season undefeated in first place, face fourth-place Georgetown in the quarter-final battle of Halton Hills.
