

Tennant scores four in rout

Mike Morris and Steve Atkinson picked up a pair of markers each as Lakeview Center scored a 5-1 upset over Neilsen's Clothing Sunday in industrial hockey action.

Chris Tennant collected four goals as Family Cleaners blasted Acton Travel 11-5 and Heller's topped ATW 6-4 in other league games Sunday.

In the first match, Atkinson opened the scoring 40 seconds into the first frame on an unassisted goal.

Ernie Ruck made it 2-0 at 1:56 but Bob Jarrett countered for Neilsen's in what turned out to be their only goal.

Lakeview scored their other markers in the second. Atkinson potted his second at 4:57, then Morris collected two at 5:36 unassisted and 12:01.

Three quick goals in the third period put Family Cleaners ahead to stay in the second game Sunday.

Dave Morris netted a hat trick in the match. He scored the first two goals for Family Cleaners at 10:15 and 15:45 of the first.

A marker by Henry Toebes kept Acton Travel in the game in the opening frame.

But two goals by Tennant and singles from Ken Owens, Wayne Deforest and Wayne Allan gave Cleaners a sizable lead.

Tennant connected on two more in the third with Mike Fields and Mike Miller as the other Cleaner goalscorers.

Acton Travel rallied with two late goals in the third by Toebes and Ken Slaney at 6:52 and 8:07 but the clock ran out before a comeback attempt could be made.

George McPhail and Floyd Hillier were the other Acton Travel marksmen.

Heller's scored a come-from-behind 6-4 victory in the final game Sunday.

Bruce Cooksley connected for Heller's 36 seconds into the match. John McCutcheon replied for ATW at 1:21.

Later on in the period Oliver Cooper scored for Heller's and Gary Moore tied it for ATW. Ivan Hayler and Gary Pickles earned ATW bids. Ken Hurren helped out Cooper.

Hayter opened the second period scoring at 1:53 connecting on a pass via Moore and Bruce McPhail.

It took until 7:33 before Heller's could tie it but they did when Russ Van Fleet directed a pass from Cooksley into the net.

Then Moore's goal at 16:19 gave ATW a one goal lead going into the third period. That's when three unanswered goals by Van Fleet, Cooper and Bill Manes at 1:51, 2:24 and 7:01 gave Heller's the win.

Sunday night action continues when ATW meets Lakeview at 7 p.m., Acton Travel and Heller's square off at 8:20 and Cleaners battle Neilsen's at 9:40.

Key saves aid Laing

Laing Construction atoms battled Fergus to a 1-1 tie Monday in Hub league hockey action.

The game emphasized defence as the trio of Evan Hayter, Lee Yaroshak and Frank Katsilieras played strong games.

Scott Williams, who played between the pipes for Laing, made some key saves.

Both teams scored their lone goals in the first period. Carl Yaroshak was the Acton marksman with Paul Campbell earning the assist.

after overpowering Kitchener-Waterloo 9-0 Friday.

Laing fell behind early in the game, playing flat in the first period. Hespeler scored two goals while Craig Cadenhead connected for Acton.

Inability to finish off scoring plays kept Acton at bay. Hespeler scored three more in the third; John Van Dam, replied for Acton. Greg Leatherland, Carl Yaroshak and Van Dam picked up the assists.

Van Dam netted the hat trick in Friday's 9-0 conquest. He opened the scoring, followed by another first period goal by Troy Foster. Wayne MacEachern, Cadenhead and Jason Henderson earned aids.

Cadenhead and Carl Yaroshak connected in the second frame while Van Dam, with two unassisted goals, Leatherland also with two, one on the powerplay and Rob Murray scored in the third.

Cadenhead was credited with a pair of assists with a single to Yaroshak.

The next Laing home game is Saturday at 4 p.m. when they battle Brantford.

Saturday Laing dropped a 5-2 loss to Hespeler

Colin Brackenridge, goalie for the minor atom Moms, makes the stop during Wednesday night's defeat of Guelph. Michael Williams (5) makes sure Guelph player Paul Hayes (8) can't get to the puck.

Moms battle to 2-2 tie

A high sticking call against the minor atom Moms cost them a point in Sunday's 2-2 battle with Brantford.

Ron Salmon had scored a goal, but it was disallowed because of the high sticking call.

The Moms outplayed Brantford but were foiled by some good goaltending. Sean Sears scored the first Acton goal, in the second period but Brantford soon tied it up.

Then Brantford scored to take the lead with only four minutes left in the second period.

The score remained 2-1 until 5:51 of the third when Sears connected on his second goal. Rene Van Kesteren earned points on both Acton goals.

Earlier in the week the Moms shutout Waterloo 2-0 at the Community Centre.

The defensive teams of Mike Brouwer and Ian Johnston and Chris Graham and Salmon played their best game of the season, protecting goalie Chris Enright's hard-earned shutout. It was Enright's first win of the season between the pipes.

An addition to the team at right wing, Jason Boose, boosted the team's offence. Sears scored the first goal in the opening frame, assisted by Tim Tibbitts. Salmon potted the second Acton goal early in the third on an unassisted effort.

Lions caged

Acton Lions peewees dropped a 3-2 decision to Guelph Saturday at the Community Centre in Hub League hockey action.

Clinton McMillan and Kevin Lobsinger scored for Acton. John Lloyd and Philip Wedge picked up the assists. Lobsinger's goal was unassisted.

The loss came on the heels of another Lion's defeat, this time to Kitchener White 2-1 Friday in Kitchener.

Lloyd was the lone Acton goalscorer, potting a tying goal with 4:20 left in the game on an unassisted effort.
