Lucky sevens score industrial points

Dave Morris who wears number seven on his jersey, picked up four points as Family Cleaners and Neilsen's Clothing battled to a 4-1 tie Sunday in Industrial league hockey action at the Community Centre.
 Gary Moore who also wears number seven on his jersey, netted a hat trick enroute to ATW's 7-4 conquest over Lakeview Centre in the second game Sunday and Heller's handed Acton Travel Ltd. a 5-2 defeat in the third game.
 Morris put Family Cleaners ahead by two scoring at 10:26 of the first and 3:07 of the second. Sid Barons earned an aid on his second goal.
 Randy scored a marker to put the Cleaners ahead again at 3:10 of the third with Mike Miller and Morris picking up assists.
 But Lloyd Smallwood tied it for Neilsen's at 4:25, then McIntyre connected on his second goal to give them a slim lead.
 It lasted until 16:54 when Barons potted the equalizer.
 Morris picked up his second assist on the goal. Smallwood, Jarrett and Charlie Payne earned the Neilsen's aids.
 The game was one of the cleanest in industrial league history, with no penalties served on either side.
 It didn't take long for Moore to get untracked in the second game Sunday. He scored the first goal of his hat trick for ATW only 42 seconds into the game, unassisted yet.
 Glen McKenzie and Gary Pickles built on it making it 3-0 in the first period, scoring at 1:39 and 4:27 before Steve Atkinson—a third number seven—put Lakeview Centre on the scoreboard at the eight minute mark.
 McKenzie made it 4-1 42 seconds later, but Bart Jacobs kept Lakeview in the match with his goal at 10:08. Pickles needed to score one more goal, unassisted before he'd let the period end, giving ATW a 5-2 lead.

 Lakeview struck back in the early minutes of the second frame, with Atkinson again and Ernie Ruck scoring at 1:15 and 2:11.
 That made it 5-4 until Moore connected on his second goal at 10:10 of the middle stanza.
 He clinched the victory in the final minute of the third scoring at 19:47.
 John McCutcheon, Mark Morrison, Pickles, Evan Hayter, Bryan Lloyd and Bruce McPhail collected aids for ATW.
 Lakeview brackets went to Mike Morris who counted three, Stan Rhynolds, Dave Thompson and Jacobs who drew a pair.
 Four third-period goals by Heller's gave them the 5-2 victory over Acton Travel in the final game.

 Tim McIntyre's goal at 17:38 of the first period opened the scoring.
 Acton Travel bounced back trying it on Henry Toebes marker at 4:03 of the second and going ahead by one goal from George Artem at 6:50.
 But a pair from Russ Van Fleet plus singles from Bill Severinski and Bill Rogers at the 48 second mark, 1:54, 9:51 and 17:55 put end to Acton Travel.
 Roger's marker was unassisted, but Oliver Cooper, Ian Fleet, Severinski, Brent Irwin and goalie Dave Allen did pick up some assists.
 John Ashley and Claire Snow helped out on the Acton Travel goals.
 Sunday the two top teams in the league do battle as Family Cleaners and Heller's meet at 7 p.m. Neilsen's faces ATW at 8:20 and Lakeview Centre squares off against Acton Travel at 9:40 p.m.

Quick goals aid Moms

The minor atom Hockey Moms picked up a pair of victories in Hub league hockey action last week, in their home and home series with Galt.
 They nipped Galt 6-5 in Acton Wednesday and doubled them 4-2 Saturday in Galt.
 Jason Boose was the first player to light up the scoreboard pitting a goal at 7:26 of the opening frame. Rene Vankesteren earned the assist.
 Galt tied it up early in the second, but then Moms potted three quick goals.
 Vankesteren scored at 1:20, followed by Steve Robertson's goal 13 seconds later at 1:33. Then Sean Sears connected only 18 seconds later at 1:51. That made it 4-1 for the Moms.
 Galt put the pressure on Acton however, scoring two goals with less than two minutes to go in the second frame, making it 4-3.
 Boose's second goal at 1:10 in the third gave the Moms some breathing space but Galt narrowed the lead once more.
 Vankesteren clinched the victory with his goal at 3:44 of the third.
 Saturday's game was a little easier on the Moms. They took a two goal lead with Vankesteren and Boose scoring in the first period.
 Galt came back, to tie it however, getting one goal while the Moms were short handed. Mike Brouwer pocketed a marker with 1:50 left to play, putting the Moms ahead to stay.
 Robertson clinched the Fund draw

The Acton Free Press Juniors are holding a 50-50 draw with proceeds going towards a benevolent fund for Rob Evans and his family.
 Evans, a member of the juveniles, was sent to the hospital with a separated shoulder on Oct. 25, in a game against Woolwich.
 He was released later on, but is now back in the hospital because of complications.
 The draw will be held Jan. 3, 1981. Tickets are available from any player on the juvenile squad.

Novices suffer beating

Alton-McIsaac novices were victims of a 9-2 drubbing in Elora Saturday in Hub league hockey.
 Elora built a three goal lead before Tim Briggs put Acton on the scoreboard. He scored at 4:34 of the second frame. Chris O'Neill earned the assist.
 However Elora scored three more goals in the second period and a fourth early in the third.
 Rob Lockhurst potted Alton-McIsaac's second marker midway through the third frame, with Paul Westaway helping on the play.
