

Juveniles stopped short by posts

Acton Free Press juveniles fell short of a 5-4 score Saturday when they faced off against Hespeler at the Community Centre.

Coach Craig Weldon describes it as juveniles' "best game of the season".

The pressmen fought back from a 5-1 deficit in the second and third periods to bring themselves within one of a tie.

But they couldn't connect for the equalizer although they pulled goal-tender Dave Anderson and went with the extra attacker.

Hespeler opened the scoring, but Roger Evans replied for Acton at 5:11.

Then Hespeler exploded with four goals at 6:25, 6:49 and 7:26 of the first and 1:52 of the second.

It seemed as though Hespeler had good command of the game, leading 5-1 with only two minutes left in the second frame.

But then Evans and

Rick Miller connected on a one-two push, scoring with 1:42 and 1:05 left in the period.

Derek Hodgson made it even closer with his third-period goal at 6:07, but some crossbars and goal posts interfered with the juveniles tying goal in the dying seconds of the game. It ended 5-4 for Hespeler.

Scott Timbers was thrown out of the game early in the second period. Frank Noseworthy started out in the nets and was replaced by Anderson.

Alton-McIsaac novices captured another victory Saturday, nipping Fergus 3-2 in hub league hockey action. The novices are in last place in the standings, but a few more games like Saturday's should improve their stance.

Ferguson, Ed's smash Guelph

Tim Ferguson led Ed's In-N-Out midgets to a 3-1 defeat of Guelph Sunday at the Community Center by scoring all three Acton goals.

It was the best game of the season for the midgets featuring a good team effort, especially in the back checking department.

Two major bantams, Paul Cargill and Rick Dodds were brought up for the game and made their presence felt with Cargill gaining an assist on Ferguson's third goal.

Ferguson scored in the first period at 9:11 and again with 48 seconds left. Rob Vermuelen, Rick Greenly, Wayne McMillian and Dell Mohammed earned assists.

His third goal came with 7:03 left in the second. Mohammed picked up his second aid.

Guelph spoiled Ed's shutout with a third-period goal.

Ed's next games are Sunday against Fergus at 12:30 p.m. at the Community Center and Tuesday against Guelph.

Flyers, Gems having troubles

The other two north Halton Junior B teams, Georgetown Gemini, which Acton Sabres defeated Friday and the Milton Flyers are experiencing some difficulties this season.

Besides Friday's loss to Acton, Georgetown battled to a 1-1 tie in Streetsville last Tuesday but was set back 7-2 Sunday by the same Derbys.

The Flyers meanwhile, wallowing in the depths managed a 6-6 tie with the Barrie Colts Friday night in Milton.

This week Milton faces

Dixie, Orillia and Thornhill while the Gems meet Brampton tomorrow and Burlington Sunday.

The Winter Brochure is out "today" in the paper for Georgetown residents, and mailed out for the Acton and area residents. # Bants short despite pair by Fronteddu...

But they couldn't connect on the equalizer, while Kitchener capitalized on an Acton infraction, scoring at 7:36.

David Thomas, Tony Van Dam and Heath Norton picked up the Acton assists.

Thomas, Fronteddu and Van Dam were the Hespeler downed Acton 6-3 in Hespeler. Fronteddu and Thomas' goals had actually given the Rotary Club bants a one-goal lead early in the second period, but Hespeler came back to tie it before the third.

Hespeler exploded with four goals in the third compared to Van Dam's lone unassisted marker.

But Fronteddu's first marker put the Acton bants right in the game, shortly before the end of the period.

The bants elation over the goal was sweet, but short, as Kitchener scored immediately afterwards, ending the period 4-2.

So Fronteddu tried again, scoring on the powerplay at 3:59, putting the Rotary Club within one of tying the game.
