Morrisette pots three goals, bants blast New Hamburg

Ted Morrisette netted a hat trick as the Rotary Club minor bantams blasted New Hamburg 10-4 Tuesday at the Community Center.
 The game saw Acton jump into a 4-1 lead in the first period, come close to losing it midway through the second as New Hamburg fought back to make it 4-3, then pull away in the last half with his second, Mike Fronteddu and Morrisette with his third scored in the second period, making it 7-4. Acton dominated the third period with Andrew Ferguson, Fronteddu on his second goal and Tony Van Dam connecting. Van Dam earned three assists, Robbie Porte picked up a pair, as did Tom Van-derEyken, James, Chris Stewart, Thomas, and Grant Smith.

Novices win

A lone goal by Chris O'Neill gave the Alton-McIsaac novices a 1-0 shutout over Fergus Saturday.
 O'Neill pocketed his marker at 4:52 in the second frame. Sean VanKesteren and Paul Westaway earned the aids.
 Alton McIsaac suffered a 3-1 loss Sunday in Galt, despite what coach Fred Buchanan called the excellent play of the locals. Scott McKee was the Acton marksman with help from
