

On the sixth day of Christmas, his true love gave to him six sausages... at least that's the French version of the 12 days of Christmas sung by the senior class at Speyside school's Christmas concert.

The Grinch who stole Christmas makes way with the Yule loot in a shortened version of Dr. Seuss' Christmas tale, presented by grade five at Speyside school last Wednesday.

Exchange ideas for stocking stuffers

by Mrs. A. Gates
Freshly fallen snow outside, an open fireplace and the Christmas tree inside set the scene for the Greenock Women's Institute Christmas party meeting. It was held at the home of Mrs. W. Aitken.

President Mrs. J. Addison gave the motto—"Christmas is the feeling within oneself."
Twenty-one members and one visitor gave many interesting ideas for stockings and stocking stuffers or reminisced about Christmas as a child.

The evening was interspersed with carols sung by all to the accompaniment of Mrs. G. Pridmore at the organ. Shut-ins are remembered by the card, fruit and flower committee of Mrs. C. Allan, Mrs. J. Veerman and Mrs. A. Leslie.

A new 4-H short course is offered by the Ministry of Agriculture and Home Economics. Entitled "Get ready, set, sew", this course offers basic techniques in sewing for beginners, including ages 12-26 yrs. Leaders will be gratefully acknowledged. Please contact Mrs. E. McGeragle, Mrs. J. Addison or Mrs. A. Gates.

Gratitude was expressed to Mrs. R. Salter for demonstrating and assisting in creating

In Venezuela Hallaca, a native Venezuelan dish, is an awaited delicacy during the Christmas season. It is made of corn meal with pork and chicken stuffing and numerous other ingredients, and then wrapped in plantain leaves to form a type of pie.

It's a mid-summer Christmas in Argentina, and the traditional feast is generally served outdoors. Rosebuds and jasmine deck the table, which has an edible centerpiece a whole roast suckling pig.

Brazilian lore and legend says that Three King's Day is a time for poetry contests. Verses accompanied by guitars are featured.

Unique among Christmas customs in Chile is a grand fiesta that centres around horse racing.

dried arrangements of shrubs, flowers, weeds, etc. It was held in November.

Mrs. McGeragle and Mrs. Addison showed us all how to make a yarn Cinnamon Braid decoration. Calico patches stuffed with whole cloves and cinnamon stick bark was tied to the braid. It is a nice addition to any room.

Mrs. W. Aitken was in charge of the gift exchange.

A Christmas card with a word or words on the back of it was given to each person.

When your word came up in the carol 'While Shepherds Watch' you chose a gift from the tree. On receiving it there was a clue, a riddle or a verse to guess from whom the gift came. This was a novel and fun way to receive it.

A delicious festive lunch was served by Mrs. E. Patterson, Mrs. J. Veerman and Mrs. M. Brozic assisted by the hostess.

Mrs. M. McGeragle was courtesy convener.
