Hotel hearing continues

Another day's testimony was heard Thursday in the preliminary hearing for three town men accused in the fire death of Howard Gibbons in the Dominion Hotel. Michael McCristall, Leonard Cripps and Cosimo Mercuri were charged almost a year ago with second degree murder. The Crown is nearly finished presenting its case. The hearing is scheduled to resume in February.

Trinity UCW

Slate of officers almost unchanged

by Elsie Reed
The regular meeting of Trinity UCW was held at 2 p.m. Dec. 9 in the Church Parlors with a fine attendance. Mrs. Force presided.

Christmas shoppers were treated to a special sing-song as students at Robert Little School marched through the streets Wednesday carolling.

The devotional period consisted of the beautiful Christmas Hymns with Ethel Denny at the piano. Appropriate Scripture readings depicted the coming of Jesus and of his wonderful Birth. Readings were given by Dorothy Simmons, Elsie Reed, Jessie Ramsden, and Annie Lambert.

Business and usual reports were quickly dealt with. Laurie Cook, President of the TAG Group, was present and thanked the UCW for their help with the successful bazaar; for baking and craft work. She gave a clear run down of how the TAG were spreading the proceeds in many helpful ways. They extended an invitation to the UCW to join them for a pot luck dinner on Dec. 17.

The slate of officers for 1981 will remain almost the same—Kate Hart will assist Annie Lambert as treasurer. Dorothy Simmons turned in money from the Quilting Group and announced there would be no more quilting done until after Christmas. Money from sale of aprons was also received. There were still some Church Calendars on hand to be sold.

Nellie Shoemaker gave her detailed report of sick and shut-ins and said the "Cheer" Baskets would be packed on Dec. 18. Kae and Laurie Cook volunteered to help deliver baskets and gifts. Nellie Wick was saluted with the Birthday Song. Elsie Johnson will have a Birthday, Jan. 25. The next meeting will be Jan. 13 at 12:30 p.m. as it will be a pot luck dinner with the TAG as guests. A delightful lunch of sandwiches and light and dark fruit cake, with a special cup-cake for Nellie Wick complete with candle, provided an opportunity for a pleasant social hour of good fellowship and concluded a year of worth while work by this group.
