Indusmin fire

An oil tank caught fire in one of the Indusmin quarry buildings Friday afternoon. Acton Firefighters used foam to put out the fire. Fire Chief Mick Holmes said there was no estimate yet on the damage. Fire trucks were called out to Riche's service station where a police cruiser was reported on fire Thursday night. The call was cancelled while the trucks were enroute, said Chief Holmes. However, while the trucks were returning to the hall they were diverted to a fire call at a farm on Churchill Road South. That call, said the chief, turned out to be a false alarm.

Merry Christmas

Best wishes for old fashioned Christmas joys... and thank you for the pleasure and privilege of serving you, our valued friends.
