Laing blasts Fergus

The Hub league schedule may have all but stopped for the holidays, but don't tell Laing Construction major atoms.

They haven't stopped exerting their powers, picking up a pair of exhibition victories last week.

Friday they handed Flamboro a 5-2 loss in Flamboro and Wednesday they bombed Fergus 10-2.

Carl Yaroschak led the way in Friday's game, collecting a pair of goals and assists.

He aided on the first Acton marker, netted by Greg Leatherland at 5:08 of the second period.

Todd Lazenby connected on the second goal. John Van Dam scored the final Acton goal at 7:03, with help from Troy Foster.

Laing completely dominated Wednesday's game, outskating and outthrusting Fergus.

Laing sees action next in the Silver Stick Tournament in Brampton over the Christmas vacation.
