

Sabres foiled by Brampton and Orillia

Acton Sabres have found themselves in a battle for fourth place with Brampton after picking up only a single point in two games last week. Sabres continued to slide, losing 5-0 in Brampton Thursday, but pulled up their socks long enough to settle for a 5-5 tie with Orillia Friday at the Community Centre. Last night (Monday) they played second-place Oak Ridge with results unavailable at press time.

Russiani sat out four players, Bob Vermuelen, Mark Duval, Roy Dolman and David Wally in an effort to shake up the Swordsman for Friday's match with Orillia.

checking game last night, but with Glenn Murray suspended for two games, thanks to a third-period fight Friday night, Sabres will be hurting.

scored two goals in Friday's match, with singles going to Bob Allison, Pat Fung and Barry Trood.

Monahan, Trood and Murray also pocketed aids. Steve Kruk was in the nets and played a good game, says Russiani.
