Redmen champs as season begins

When the AHS midjet, junior and senior Redmen step onto the court today (Wednesday) to start their regular schedule of the secondary school basketball season, they step already winners.

All three teams have done well in pre-season exhibition games with junior Redmen, once again proving to be the team to beat.

So far no one has. The juniors are undefeated in 15 exhibition games with two tournament titles under their sweat socks. They started their exhibition season Nov. 12, against Erin overpowering them 75-28. Few days later they beat them again 47-23. Shelburne was the next victim 47-32, then Georgetown 53-45, and Nelson.

The the J.A. Turner tournament Nov. 28-29

Acton downed Port Credit 74-31, St. Jeromes 62-48 and Clarkson 61-21 enroute to the championship.

Top scorer of the tournament was John Lobello with 39 points. In between that tournament and their own Redmen Invitational Dec. 6, which they also won, Acton defeated M.M. Robinson 54-48 and Georgetown 73-45.

In the Redmen Invitational, the juniors dumped J.A. Turner 56-29 Georgetown 59-34 and M.M. Robinson 56-39 for that championship. Paul Gorjup and Glenn Scott, both hooped 28 points as top scorers in the Invitational.

They played two more games before the Christmas break, bombing Dundas 91-13 and Milton 69-27.

Today the juniors, seniors and midjets meet Perdue High School of Oakville.
