Moms advance in OMHA playdowns

Minor atom Moms advance to the second round of OMHA playdowns after taking Fergus in two straight games on the weekend. Acton won the first match at the Community Centre Saturday 4-1, in an exciting, fast game. Fergus opened the scoring late in the first period, but a goal by Jason Boose tied it for the Moms. Sean Sears made it 2-0 midway through the second period and Steve Robertson closed the frame with the third goal. Mike Brower capped off the evening with the final goal in the third period.

Tim Tibbitts earned a pair of assists with singles going Ian Johnston, Rene VanKesteren, Sears, Chris Graham, and Brower.

The second game of the best-two-of-three series played Sunday in Fergus, was a tight-checking match with half the contest going scoreless.

Redmen scalped

The AHS junior Redmen fell to a powerhouse Midland squad in the consolation final of a day-long basketball tournament in Aurora Saturday.

The Redmen were the only team in the tournament to play five games in one day. They lost two of those five, the first in a close match against Weston 56-54 and the second to Midland 63-22.

They won the first game downing Bradford 50-44. Paul Gorjup and Glenn Scott were the top offensive players, each netting 10 points.

Dave Entwistle led the Redmen to their second victory, a 57-44 beating of Barrie North. Entwistle had 13 points in the game.

The juniors had little problem with their third match, dumping Grantham 53-39. Gorjup was top scorer with 16 points.

Scott led the Redmen in their losing effort against Weston in the fourth match, hooping 17 points and Entwistle was top scorer against Midland with six points.

Entwistle was also top scorer in the tourney for
