Beardmore made move on the road

Beardmore minor peewees returned to Acton Sunday, two games up in Hub league playoffs after a successful road trip.

Beardmore quashed Kitchener Green in the first game of the round robin playoff 5-1 Wednesday in Kitchener. Saturday they were in New Hamburg handing them a 6-1 loss then travelled to Chingacousy Sunday for a 2-2 tie in an exhibition game.

Coach Dan McGilloway said Beardmore played strong in all three matches. Passing and skating was exceptionally good in Wednesday's victory. Sean Fitzgerald opened the scoring in the first, Kitchener tied it in the second.

Beardmore exploded in the third with goals from Paul Killepatrick, Tom Atherton, Darryl Bartlett and Jason O'Neill. Atherton, Bartlett, Ron Robinson, David Haynes and Gord Taillefer picked up the assists.

McGilloway singled out Taillefer in Saturday's game, saying he played strong, netting two goals. Peter Cargill also potted two, with singles from Bartlett and Sean Fitzgerald.

Killepatrick, earned a pair of assists; Chris Rogers, Kirk McNabb, O'Neill and Atherton also assisted.

Sunday's game saw good end-to-end action. Once again Acton opened the scoring, this time in the second frame as O'Neill connected from Cargill and McNabb. Chingacousy tied it early in the third, but Toth Hill put Beardmore back in front with 5:25 in the game. Dean Cole added. However Ching came back scoring with three minutes left to tie the match.

Rotary rally cops coup

Rotary Club minor bantams rallied from a 4-2 deficit late in the third to down Galt Kinsmen Knights 6-4 Saturday in Hub league round robin playoffs.

Galt had jumped into a 4-2 lead midway through the third frame. But two minutes later, with only 3:47 left in the game Rotary Club had tied it up. Tony Van Dam and Terry Danagher were the marksmen.

Action broke the tie with only 49 seconds left in the game. Van Dam's second marker and clinched it with three seconds remaining via Michel Fronteddu's goal.

Greg James and David Thomas were the other Acton goalgetters.

Danagher, Van Dam, Brad O'Neill, James, Grant Smith, Fronteddu, and Andrew Ferguson picked up the brackets.

Galt's first goal in the second frame was the result of a penalty shot.

Rotary Club played again last night (Tuesday) with results unavailable at press time.
