Sabres bow out with class . . .

(Continued from B1) two goals however, it was a different story. Sabres were felled in the attempted third-period comeback by goaltender Blair, who stopped the Swordsman time after time. Cougars had equally good scoring opportunities, especially in the second and third when Sabres began to panic slightly, but McDougall shone in net. Says Russiani, "McDougall was the star of the series." Mike Monahan also had a good game Monday, figuring in the second Acton goal that tied the game 2-2. He was set up by Rob Vermeulen and Dennis Charbonneau. Trood scored the opening goal just 37 seconds into the first period with Murray and Kirton assisting. "I think it was a combination of a couple of things," said Russiani explaining the loss. Inexperience, for one. "We were tired Saturday, but Monday behind two goals, I think we just ran out of steam." Russiani appreciated the fan support. "The fans have been behind us 100 per cent," he said, clarifying an earlier statement about their confidence. "They've been terrific all year." Friday 1,000 of them, at least half from Acton, were in full voice in Central arena in Burlington to watch the Sabres win 6-5 in an exciting game. Sabres were behind 2-0 at the end of the first period but came back to tie it in the second. Trood, Monahan, Murray, Duval and Trood once more on the powerplay scored to make it 5-5.

At 11:36 in the third McDougall, attempting to clear the puck during a particularly hairy Cougar powerplay passed to Charbonneau. He positioned the puck right on the stick of a speeding Murray who flipped it into the net for the winning goal. Sabres held on for the victory. Half of Acton awoke to the heralded return of busloads of fans after the game. Monday they were a little quieter, but Sabres held a party anyway. And now that it's all over Russiani said he's not too disappointed although he'd feel better if they had won.

Ed's shut out

Ed's In-n-Out midgats refused to be intimidated by a rough New Hamburg team in their second game of OMHA playoffs last week, but they couldn't do a thing about the Hamburg goaltender who shut them out 2-0 to tie the best-of-five series. Ed's won the first game 3-1 with a strong team effort and goals by Randy Coverdale, Tim Ferguson and Gary White.

Firefighters blast into OMHA quarter finals

Acton firefighter major bantams advance to the quarter-finals of the OMHA playoffs after dumping Fergus in two straight games in their best-of-three series last week.

Monday the Firefighters downed Fergus 7-3 to capture the series. Last Tuesday they doubled them 6-3.

In between OMHA games, Firefighters travelled to New Hamburg Friday for a Hub League playoff game, coming on top of a 5-2 score.

Bill Morrison and David McKnight pocketed two goals apiece Monday with singles coming from Paul Cargill, Todd Laing and Randy Coverdale. Chris Hicks, Rick Dodds, David Milne, Brad Youmans, Brad Mac-person, and Stan Smith assisted. Morrison also scored two goals in the first game. Smith, Cargill, McKnight, and Coverdale were the other goalgetters.

Smith potted two goals in the game. Milne and Morrison scored the other Acton markers. Morrison and Smith also assisted, along with Coverdale and Danager.

Shooters shine

The Acton rink of Jean McCutcheon, Carol Anne Sprout, Lynda McDonald and Marilyn McArthur won the June in January bonspiel in Oakville January 29. They nipped Mississauga in the first game 13-4 and Oakville 8-5 in the second.

Benefit game

A special exhibition game featuring the Acton Refs against the CFCM Bull Shooters will be held at the Community Centre Saturday, Feb. 29 at 8 p.m. Tickets are $1 for adults and 50 cents for children. Moms ousted

Despite Rene VanKesteren's two goals in the final minutes of the hockey game, Acton minor atom Moms fell short in their second OMHA playoff game against Woolwich Wednesday. They came out on the wrong end of a 4-3 score. Jason Boose opened the scoring but Woolwich came back with four unanswered goals. Time ran out for Moms as VanKesteren's goals came with only 2:06 and 42 seconds left in the game. Steven Robertson assisted on all three goals. Tim Tibbitts picked up the other one. The loss puts the Moms out of the playoffs.
