Firefighters behind in OMHA series

Acton Firefighter major bantams fell behind in their best of five OMHA Series with Paris last week after suffering an 8-3 defeat Friday. Sunday they came back to tie Paris 2-2 after a 10-minute overtime failed to break the tie giving Paris the edge in the Series.

Paris scored five unanswered goals in the second frame of the first match after playing catch-up hockey in the first. Randy Coverdale put Acton on the scoreboard 18 seconds into the game. Paris tied it up two minutes later but Dave McKnight kept Firefighters in front scoring seconds later at 7:41. Paris tied it scoring at 12:33.

Bants bury Galt

Rotary Club major bantams buried Galt 4-1 in Hub League playoffs last Tuesday at the Community Centre.

Rotary Club jumped into a three goal lead by the third period on markers from Tom Vander Eyken, and a pair from Tony VanDam.

Michael Fronteddu and David Thomas rounded out the Acton scoring. Greg James, Chris Stewart, Robbie Porte and Fronteddu assisted.

Waples named horseman of year

Rockwood driver Ron Waples has been named Canada's Standardbred Horseman of the Year. It's the fifth time Waples has been named the fourth year in a row. Last year Waples finished first 346 times, earning $2.1 million in purses—the highest figure of his career.

Laing starts quarter finals

Laing Construction major atoms meet Beamsville tonight in the first game of OMHA quarter-finals after eliminating Flamboro in five games last week.

Laing took the final contest 3-1 last Tuesday in Flamboro.

John Van Dam, Carl Yaroschak, and Lee Yaroschak on the powerplay were the goal getters. Jason Henderson, Carl Yaroschak and Craig Cadenhead assisted.

Saturday Laing, also in the middle of Hub league playoffs, scored a 3-1 victory over Kitchener. Van Dam, Yaroschak and
