PAULINE Carey as Anna Jameson, wife of Canada's first Vice-Chancellor gives an insight into the political and sociological views of the woman who had a passion for justice. A woman with a spirit of adventure... a person highly cultivated yet tough enough to travel from Toronto to Lake Huron on impossible roads... to become the first white woman to venture down the rapids at Sautee Falls. Maria, Actress and Writer Pauline Carey's play shows how Anna Jameson slowly came to call Lake Ontario her own and how she left these shores with a fondness for the land and its people. People's Choice Public Library (Cedarvale Gym), 8 p.m. Monday March 23, Free.
