

Novices share 1-1 tie with Tottenham

Alton Novices have been keeping busy with exhibition games since finishing their Hub league playoff and championship games two weeks ago in Waterloo. There they lost both games in the championship and consolation round to Guelph and Galt. But they came back Saturday to share a 1-1 tie with Tottenham in an exhibition match at the Community Centre. Tottenham was first to light up the scoreboard, netting a goal at 4:30 in the second frame. But with less than four minutes remaining in the match, Chris O'Neill connected on a pass from Tim Briggs and Robbie Lockhurst to tie the contest. Sunday they squeezed another tie, this time out of an exhibition match in Burlington. O'Neill was the Acton marksman, scoring two goals with Briggs picking up a single. Wednesday March 11, the novices fell 3-1 to Georgetown.
