

A happy bunch: The Laing Construction Major Atoms told everyone just exactly who is number one in their OMHA and Hub leagues by capturing both the OMHA zone championship and Hub league title. Here they are after winning the OMHA title last Monday evening, April 6 at the Community Centre with a decisive 5-2 victory over Woolwich. Back row from left to right: Rob Murray, Scott Williams, Paul Campbell, John Van Dam, Jason Henderson, Craig Cadenhead, Todd Lazenby, Frank Katsilleris and Evan Hayter. Middle row: Troy Foster and Carl Yaroschak. Front: Wayne MacEachern, Greg Leatherland, Lee Yaroschak and David Hinz. Laing was the top team in Acton this year with an incredible record of 49 wins, eight losses and nine ties in 66 games. Coach Evan Hayter said of his team, "they're one of the best disciplined bunch of 10 and 11 year olds you will ever see, and the record shows it."

Cougars still at it in provincial battle

Burlington Cougars, Central Ontario Jr. B champions, took a one-game lead in the provincial Jr. B championships with a 4-1 victory over Stratford Sunday night in Burlington.

The win put Cougars ahead 1-0 in the best-of-seven championship series. Game two goes Friday in Stratford at 8 p.m. with the third game back at Burlington Sunday at 7:30 p.m.

The championship series pits two strong skating teams against one another in an entertaining match-up.

It marks Burlington's first shot in the finals of an Ontario Hockey Association title. Burlington hasn't won an OHA title in its 30-year history at several levels.

Cougars advanced to the final round with a 4-1 series victory over St. Michael's Buzzers.
