Smoke damages house

Firefighters estimate $1,000 damage, most of it caused by smoke, to a Storey Drive home in a Monday morning fire. Halton Hills Fire Department Fire Prevention officer Larry Brassard reported that the fire was caused by a child playing with matches in the house basement. Acton Fire-fighter Dave Ford broke his left wrist when he tripped over something in a field a quarter mile south of 20 Sideroad during one of Thursday night's grass fires. That fire was just off Highway 25 as was an earlier blaze near the Gulf gas station.

Birth control talk

Ann Marie Billan will speak at next Wednesday's (April 29) Acton Y take-a-break program. Her topic will be birth control and health.

Trilight tickets on sale

The 1981-82 Halton Hills Arts Council series will include the Travellers as the first concert, a folk singing group of five who will appear Wed., Sept. 23, 1981, at Sacre Coeur Hall.

On Wed., Jan. 27, 1982, the second concert will be held at the Acton High School and will star Sears and Switzer.

The London Sinfonia will appear for the last concert at the Halton Hills Library Arts Complex on Wed., April 7, 1982.

Seven-year old Lavonne Bugala and her sister Lisa, 11, were among the many youngsters who made their Easter eggs at the library last week.

Bev Bramham at Monte Carlo

The Bev Bramham Show from Caledon, a group which has already cut an album south of the border, will provide the music for the big Monte Carlo night on May 1 at Acton Community Centre. The group sings pop, rock, country and western and 50's music. The Monte Carlo night, featuring not just music but a buffet, games of chance, bar and over 100 door prizes, is sponsored by the Acton Chamber of Commerce in aid of Leathertown. Organizer Chip Petrillo reports over 500 of the 1,000 tickets available at $10 a person have already been sold.
