

The midgets most improved player was Roy Spears who receives his trophy from Simon Smith.

Bill Spielvogel presents the minor peewees' most improved player award to Mike Baker.

Joan Yalowica presents the Lady Byng trophy to Rick Greenley.

Chris O'Neill received the Lady Byng trophy for novice level from Fran McKnight.

AMHA awards

photos by Eric Elstone

Frank Allsop presents the Lady Byng trophy to minor bantam player Mike Fronteddu.

Barry Inscoc presents Philip Wedge with the major peewees' most improved player award.

Derek Hodgson accepts the most improved player awards for the juveniles on behalf of Frank Noseworthy from Howard Dwyer.

Dave Shannon presents Richard Kirkpatrick with the Lady Byng trophy for the major bantams.

The juveniles Lady Byng trophy winner Jim Trowbridge receives his award from referee Ken Paisley.

Minor atom's Lady Byng trophy winner was Sean Sears. He receives his award from Reg Hicks.

Major peewee's Lady Byng trophy winner Kevin Lobsinger receives his trophy from Barry Inscoc.

Troy Nolan receives the Lady Byng trophy for his play on the minor peewees from Bill Spielvogel.

Fran McKnight presents Greg Waller with the most improved player award for novice.

Evan Hayler and guest speaker Dale Tallon unfurl the major atoms banner during the minor hockey awards night.

The winner of the Dodds and Townsley award for the most improved player on the major bantams was won by Todd Laing. It was presented by Harold Townsley and Herb Dodds.

David Vandereyken received the most improved trophy for minor bants from Frank Allsop.

The minor atoms most improved player Ian Johnston gets his trophy from Reg Hicks.